Ballots were collected and election results will be announced later in the business session.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Bishop Ousley recognized Mike Turnbull, Diocesan Treasurer, for the financial report. The financial assets at the end of 2015 were $9.7 million, a decrease over 2014 by $329,000. The decrease is from the drop in investments which had very little gains in 2015. We continue to draw from our endowments, in order to proceed with the programs and operations that the diocese has committed to. Diocesan net assets are $10 million at the end of 2015. This is a $300,000 decrease from 2014.

In 2015 the congregation income was $479,000. The operating income was $741,000, bringing the total operating income to $1,225,000. The net deficit for 2015 was $15,436.

The 2016 markets have been more favorable than the 2015 markets. The estimated congregational income is projected to stay the same. Operation expenses will be up. We are projecting to break even in 2016.

For the 2017 through 2019 budget, we will give 16.5% to the National Church commitment in 2017. In 2018 we will give 15% to the National Church. We are going to continue to fund Camp Chickagami for $10,000 a year, we will maintain funding for Coppage-Gordon and continue to have $50,000 of grant money available each year. For every $1.00 contributed from congregations, $2.00 comes in from our investments, grants and endowments. Our budget revenue is $1,279,000 and no gains are expected.

In summary we will continue to support Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry, Camp Chickagami, $100,000 for Social Service Network Grants and Programs for Congregations and Clergy development. We will continue to be faithful stewards of our money in the diocese, and to be financially flexible for the diocese programs.

Questions for Mike Turnbull, Diocese Treasurer

Question from Jane Hutchins delegate from Trinity, West Branch

1. I would like clarification on the salary of the Camp Chickagami Director? Is it increasing each year? How does it breakdown?

Mike Turnbull answered that the salary of Camp Chickagami Director is part of the diocese operations and he doesn't have a breakdown of the individual salaries.

Bishop Ousley directly asked Camp Chickagami director McKenzie Bade what her annual salary is. Ms. Bade answered $36,000. Bishop Ousley went on to make a statement that the diocese has deficits that cannot be ignored in the long term. If the diocese does not begin to reverse the trends in the finances, these deficits will result in the reduction of staff and/or programs in the diocese. The loss of any one of these programs will severely impact our ability to be faithful to God's call and to the programs of mission and ministry that we have outlined as priorities in our diocese. Difficult decisions may be in our future and we will have to come together and be creative on how we can continue to fund our current programs.

Text of Yeo and Yeo Audit letter and the Six Year Financial Report are included in this journal.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Bishop Ousley addressed the convention. The text is included in this journal.

QUESTIONS FROM THE FLOOR

The Rev. Don Davidson asked about non-canonically resident clergy having voice and/or vote. Bishop Ousley thanked Don for the reminder and noted that typically this convention has granted voice and vote to clergy from other diocese and transitions serving in our congregations. This would include Rev. Don Davidson, serving as interim at St. Christopher's, Grand Blanc from the Diocese of Kansas and Rev. Mary Fitzgerald who last served Calvary, Hillman and continues to serve in our diocese, comes from the Reformed Church of America. Motion was moved, seconded and passed.

BISHOP'S APPOINTMENTS

TO CONSTITUTION AND CANONS COMMITTEE:

Tom Downs, Clergy, St. Paul's, Gladwin

Mrs. Linda Rathburn, Lay, St. Christopher's, Grand Blanc

TO THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE:

Rev. Charles Curtis, Clergy, St. Elizabeth's, Higgins Lake

Ms. Amy Simons, Lay, St. John's, Saginaw

Resolution 1

After the resolution was read, discussed and debated, Bishop Ousley proposed this motion:

“Motion to refer this resolution to the Diocesan Council and to the Recovery Ministries Network to craft a tighter resolution to be considered at the 23rd Diocesan Convention.” Motion was moved, seconded and passed.

Resolution 2

Motion to accept Resolution 2. Motion was moved, seconded and passed.

SPECIAL ADDRESS

Representatives from St. Christopher's, Grand Blanc, were recognized to address the convention.

“Right Reverend Sir and Delegates, on behalf of St. Christopher's we would like to take a moment to inform you of our current situation and ask for your prayers. We, the congregation of St. Christopher's are working diligently to recover from a time of isolation. We had unfortunately, and for most of us unknowingly, isolated ourselves from the diocese and from all of you. That was the St. Christopher's of the past, not the present. No longer are we operating in the dark and alone. Some of us were exceptions and continued to attend and support diocesan events. It is now our intent to be fully involved not only with this diocese and diocesan events, but with the congregations in our diocese. Please know that St. Christopher's is willing to help our fellow congregations and diocese in any way that we are able, and we pray that we will be able to depend on you and our diocese should we need your help in return. Finally, we simply ask for your continued prayers for our parish as we work, strive, and grow during our time of transition. Thank you.”

CAMP PRESENTATION

Bishop Ousley introduced McKenzie Bade, Camp Chickagami Director and Facilitator of Youth and Young Adults Networks. This past summer there were 194 campers which is a great testament of the support that camp is receiving from the diocese and churches. Three children read letters they had written about the impact that Camp Chickagami has had on their lives.

Greg Forsyth of St. Jude's, Fenton presented a banner, which was hand made by a parishioner, to Camp Chickagami Director McKenzie Bade and to the children of Camp Chickagami.

Address to the 22nd Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan November 11, 2016 + Treetops Resort + Gaylord, MI

A little over ten years ago I was consecrated as Bishop Coadjutor of this diocese with the responsibility to continue learning and growing in preparation for fulfilling the office of Bishop Diocesan on January 1, 2007. Immediately following the consecration, I began a promised Listening Tour of the diocese with weekday and weekend stops at 54 congregations, 4 Convocation Councils and 4 Clericus gatherings. The purpose, as I had promised, was deep and holy listening. An opportunity to hear your hopes and dreams, your deepest longings, your hurts, your frustrations and your desires to live more fully into the promises of our Baptismal Covenant. That process took more than the anticipated 100 days to complete but I came away with a more profound understanding of who is the Diocese of Eastern Michigan and what you stand for. I saw a people:

- Committed to your faith with amazing resilience in very tough places to be Church
- Surviving, if not flourishing, in the midst of economic scarcity and demographic decline
- Committed to local, grassroots, self-determination and suspicious of centralized authority
- Trapped in perspectives of scarcity over abundance
- Seeking leadership that could point us all in a new direction and toward renewed hope

Ten years ago, George W. Bush was in the White House, Hillary Rodham Clinton was in the Senate, Bernie Sanders was a little-known Senator from Vermont, and Donald J. Trump was a self-proclaimed billionaire real estate mogul hosting a reality TV show. Few, if any of us, had heard of Senator Barack Obama and the Tea Party was something that happened in Boston a long time ago. The Great Recession was an unanticipated economic collapse two years in our future and the near-death of the U.S. automotive industry was unimaginable. Within the Episcopal Church, we had just witnessed the installation of the first woman as Presiding Bishop and Primate. Persons of the same gender were not allowed to marry. The Chicago Cubs hadn't won a World Series in 98 years.

What a difference ten years makes.

Over these past ten years, this nation elected Barack Obama as the first black President, we've survived the Great Recession if not completely recovered, we've elected the first Presiding Bishop who is African-American, and marriage is now legal in all 50 states for two persons regardless of gender and all marriages may be blessed in the Episcopal Church. The Chicago Cubs haven't won a World Series in 9 days. And Donald J. Trump is now our President-elect.

Within the Diocese of Eastern Michigan, these past ten years have seen a decline in membership and Average Sunday Attendance. We are now 45 congregations on our way very quickly to 43. Annual congregational giving has declined making financial viability increasingly difficult for an increasing number of congregations. Our population continues to decline and Michigan demographics show us growing older while losing our young to opportunities in other parts of the country. The reality of our communities and our churches is one that ought make all of us pause.

The reality of our communities and our churches is one that ought make all of us pause.

So let's do that. Let's pause and take stock.

Who are we today compared to who we were ten years ago?

A few years ago, I floated the idea --- based on my observations from that long-ago Listening Tour and from conversations and interactions in the interim --- that we are a "People of Hope in a Culture of Fear." That notion resonated with many of you and it has been and remains a way for me to understand the complexities, paradoxes and challenges of being the Diocese of Eastern Michigan. The notion that we are "in a culture of fear" is even clearer to me today than it was just four days ago. Much of what drove the US electorate and what informs us within this diocese is fear --- fear of the unknown, fear of death, fear of change, fear of financial instability, and fear that the Church may not be there for us at the most important moments of our lives. Yet, in the midst of all this fear we remain a people of hope.

Yes, we are a people of hope. And we are a people whose lives are nourished by a relationship with a God who is, in the words of our Presiding Bishop, "loving, liberating and life-giving." It is this God on whom all our hope is founded.

We live that hope by:

- Risking experimentation with models of ministry that move us beyond the safety and certainty of traditional models. Whether an embrace of Baptismal Ministry in the form of congregationally-formed teams of lay and clergy, shared ministry with locally-formed clergy through the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry and its tri-diocesan collaboration in the Academy for Vocational Leadership, or a willingness to explore beyond canonical boundaries in eucharistic communities with only occasional clergy leadership, we explore and we stretch in order to be both viable and vital in our local contexts.
- Striving to overcome seemingly impossible financial hurdles to offer life-changing summer camp experiences to our young people. Participation in the multiple offerings for children, youth, families and groups at Camp Chickagami are at historic highs while financial viability remains a very real concern.
- Growing our capacity and willingness to confront issues of justice. The Social Ministries Justice Network and the Lower Peninsula Diversity Task Force continue to work faithfully to lead us into fulfilling our baptismal promises to “strive for justice and peace and to respect the dignity of every human being.”
- Engaging individual and group study of holy scriptures. Over the course of the past two years individuals and groups from across this diocese, the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion have joined in a weekly encounter with Holy Scripture, The Biblical Wild, designed to make connections between God’s narrative and the narrative of our own lives.
- Loving our neighbors through partnerships and creative response during the ongoing Flint Water Crisis. With leadership from St. Paul’s Flint, St. Andrew’s Flint, Christ Enrichment Center and Crossover Downtown Ministries, we have partnered with the Flint community and Episcopal Relief and Development to respond not only with stop-gap measures of bottled-water provision and water filtration devices, but also initiated programs of food literacy and community organizing that have drawn national attention to the devastating effects of environmental racism and systemic injustice.
- Recognizing that we are stronger together than we are apart. Conversations began almost two years ago inviting congregations in the Blue Water area to imagine possibilities for collaborative ministries. Those conversations have led to a surprising and creative decision by All Saints’ Marysville, St. Paul’s St. Clair and St. Mark’s Marine City to acknowledge that the future of their separate ministries would be immeasurably enhanced by combining resources and taking the bold initiative to close their individual congregations and become one Episcopal presence in southern St. Clair County. This Blue Water Initiative holds much promise for other parts of the diocese where we can indeed be stronger together than we are apart.

We are indeed a people of hope in a culture of fear.

But what can we say about our future?

Maintaining and building on our hope will serve us well. But more is required of us. 1 John 4:18 says “perfect love casts out all fear.” And 1 Corinthians 13:13 reminds us that “faith, hope and love abide but the greatest of these is love.” Love is indeed the answer.

I began this address by reminding us of our beginnings together --- a period of deep and holy listening to one another. It was a time of setting aside preconceptions and misconceptions. It was a time of gathering together in our various neighborhoods all across this great Diocese of Eastern Michigan to discover possibilities and hopes and dreams. It was a time to reassure you that together we could chart new territory and explore new possibilities. It was a time to renew our covenant with one another to walk faithfully in challenging and sometimes alien territory. It was a time to lay aside our fears and to risk a deeper relationship with one another and imagine a brighter future as a diocese.

Today, we live and move and have our being in a world characterized by division, destructive rhetoric, demonizing of the other and callous disregard for those whose opinions differ. This is not the Christian way, the Episcopal way or the American way. Let us once again be so bold and be so faithful as to set aside our fear and go into our neighborhoods to listen to one another, honor one another and love one another. Our attendance may not increase, our finances may not increase, our challenges will not go away, but by truly listening to one another, we are seeking and serving Christ in one another and loving our neighbor as ourselves.

We are a people of hope in a culture of fear and we know that love is the answer.

May God continue to bless us in all our ways.

COMMITTEE REPORTS SUBMITTED TO CONVENTION As of November 11, 2016

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY REPORT 2016

The following is the Mission Statement of the Commission of Ministry:

To assist all individuals, alongside the Office of the Bishop, in fulfilling their call to ministry.

Scripture to support our Mission Statement:

The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ. Ephesians 4:11-12

The means to accomplish our Mission:

1. Provide resources to assist all God's people as they discern their gifts for ministry.
2. Support the ministry of all God's people.
3. Oversee the discernment of those seeking ordination.
4. Support the Bishop in articulating the ministry of Christ.

This past year, COM has developed guidelines for persons from other denominations seeking ordination. We strive to be actively engaged in the discernment process and in supporting vestry involvement in the discernment journey for all those seeking ordination. One of the goals of COM is to encourage more effective communication from all involved in this holy process and to provide clarification where needed. We support the work of the Canon to the Ordinary Michael Spencer and the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry in their efforts in lay ministry training and development.

Since Oct. 2015, the bishop has taken the following actions after consulting with COM. The Rev. Lew Crusoe and the Rev. Mary Jo Hudson were ordained as priests.

COM currently has nine members who have been appointed by the bishop, five lay persons and four clergy.

Members of COM as of Oct. 24, 2016: The Rev. Sue Colavincenzo, Ms. Emily Klein, The Rev. Pam Lynch, Ms. Ellen McVey, The Rev. Sharon Naughton, Mr. Jon Steele, Ms. Doris Sutton, Ms. Joyce Thewalt, and The Rev. Sharon Voelker, Ex-officio member: The Rt. Rev. Todd Ousley. We would like to thank The Rev. Heather Barta, The Rev. Daniel Cannon, Ms. Missy Harrison, and Ms. Beverly Mills for their service in this ministry. All were valuable voices of discernment and their gifts will be missed. We would also like to thank Ms. Angela Krueger for her patience and excellence in working with COM.

Members of COM have served with integrity, diligence, and generosity of spirit. I thank them.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Colavincenzo, Chairperson of COM for the Diocese of Eastern Michigan

COPPAGE-GORDON SCHOOL FOR MINISTRY

This year has been a busy one for the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry. In September we began our third year of the Academy for Vocational Leadership. The Academy provides the educational component of preparation for local ordination to holy orders. This three-year joint program with the Dioceses of Michigan and Western Michigan currently has 21 students, and next June we will have our first class of graduates. We anticipate beginning a new class in September 2017.

The Academy classes in Bible, Church History, and Theology and Ethics, held once a month on a Saturday, are open to anyone interested in exploring these topics. Participation in the Bible class is now an expectation for those seeking to become licensed preachers in the Diocese of Eastern Michigan.

In 2016 Coppage-Gordon also provided Safeguarding trainings, Eucharistic Visitor training and two sessions of worship leader training, as well as a class focused on worship planning for Lent and Holy Week. A new offering this fall is a Pastoral Care Series with four sessions that explore listening skills and how to put them to use in a variety of pastoral care situations.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Dr. Valerie Fargo, Director, Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry

CHEYENNE RIVER EPISCOPAL MISSION, 2016

Episcopal Mission by the Mission Group from the Diocese of Eastern Michigan, was a bit different than previous years. This year, we were asked to work with the Cheyenne River Churches to help host the Niobrara Convocation which is an annual gathering of the Episcopal Missions of the five Reservations in South Dakota. They take turns hosting and this year our friends from CREM were the hosts. One of the highlights of the whole trip was being invited to participate in the Convocation and were told that we were going to be recognized and given an award for our relatively long term relationship with the Cheyenne River Episcopal Mission.

Rather than being involved in a building project and conducting a Vacation Bible School session, we were more than willing to provide what assistance we could. It promised to be a new experience and it certainly worked out that way.

Our trip to South Dakota was a bit different this year. Our group consisted of seven people; Nancy Steel, Alice (Pohl) McKarvie, Mike Houle, Sharon Huitema, Nathan Huitema, Phyllis Seitz, and Phil Seitz. Because our group was a bit smaller this year, the decision was made to rent an SUV rather than drive multiple vehicles.

We were given a very good rental rate and the saving in fuel cost equaled the cost of rental. The group fit well in the SUV and it gave us a chance to become really closely knit as we prepared for our experience on the Reservation.

Departure was on Tuesday, June 21. The group stayed Monday evening at the home of Phyllis and Phil so that departure was very early. The route taken was through the Upper Peninsula and Northern Wisconsin. The first night's stay was at St. Croix, WI. On Wednesday, we crossed in to Minnesota, through St. Cloud to the connecting route with US 12. From there, the route was principally West all the way to our lodging in Isabel, South Dakota. The group was very fortunate in that the Motel we were booked with had a 5 bedroom house available for a very reasonable rate. We were able to stay comfortably and were able to prepare many of our meals rather than pay for them at restaurants.

Because the Reservation is on Mountain Time, we were able to check in and make the 45 mile trip to Eagle Butte to meet and greet with many of those we had met in previous years. We were also able to get some idea of what to prepare for on Thursday when the gathering began for the Convocation. We were also able to buy groceries we needed for our meals at the Motel Home.

Thursday morning, Mother Margaret Watson, the Mission Priest, gave us an outline of some of the things we could expect to be helping with in the next few days. We began our help-time with getting everything set up in terms of facilities. There was a very large open building with a kitchen that was to prepare for and host most of the meals. There was a large arena with grandstand seating as well as many table and chairs in the arena for special programs. There were several other smaller tents available for individual programs. We provided what assistance we could in helping get everything set up.

Registration began at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday. Each meal during the Convocation Weekend was sponsored by a different Congregation within the CREM group of ten Churches. Anyone who lost weight during the Niobrara Convocation had to be very careful not to partake of the multiple varieties of food available. The WELCOME session began at 7:00 p.m. The Bishop of South Dakota, The Rt. Rev. John Tarrant, (a native of Millington) and Mother Margaret Watson, the CREM Priest, each made a welcoming presentation and the evening closed with a Close of Day Prayer Program led by the Episcopal Church Women of the Convocation.

Our Bishop Todd Ousley joined us Thursday evening and we were proud to be able to introduce him to many of those with whom we had worked for so many years.

After the Welcoming Session, our group returned to our lodging in Isobel. A few people stayed in teepee's and tents, but most were in lodging of all kinds; Motel, RV's, with friends, and quite frankly, some in their cars.

Each morning, Holy Eucharist was celebrated at 7:00 a.m. Because we were staying 45 miles away, we were blessed to have Father Mike Houle lead is in Morning and Evening Prayer each day. He has been our Chaplain for this Mission Trip for many years.

There were youth activities of many kinds available each day. Because the first day's session was primarily Convocation Business, Mike Houle, Phil Seitz, and Nancy Steele conducted a guided tour for Bishop Todd, of all the projects that we have worked with over the years. This included St. John's, Eagle Butte, St. Thomas, On-The-Tree; Emmanuel, Whitehorse, and Ascension, Blackfoot. Several of those projects were multi-year activities. We were unable to visit Thunder Butte where our initial project was located. Most years, Vacation Bible School was held, usually at St. John's, Eagle Butte. Bishop Todd was very pleased to be able to see firsthand what had been reported for so many years.

On our way to Eagle Butte on Saturday, we made a special trip via Timberlake to visit the Historical Museum. They have a comprehensive number of displays that depict the life of the Reservation from its beginning. The owner and curator gave us a very interesting presentation and made us feel very welcome.

At noon, the Episcopal Youth of the Missions lead Noon Day Prayer. They did a wonderful job. After lunch, the election of officers was held. The long time President of the Convocation had decided to retire and someone new was to be elected. Evidently there was an agreed upon successor who was elected, along with the other officers.

Something that was one of the highlights of the whole Convocation Council, was the Ordination of a new Priest who will serve on the Cheyenne River Episcopal Mission as the Youth Program Director for the next three years. Mikayla Dunfee was ordained by Bishop John Tarrant, who was assisted by Bishop Todd. She is a very interesting young lady who will do very well in the opinion of those of us who had the opportunity to meet her. During the Ordination, we were very pleased to be able to sit with Deacon Hazel Red Bird, a 92 year old Deacon who we first met early in our experience at Eagle Butte and who is now serving with the Standing Rock Reservation.

On Sunday morning, we were asked to assist St. Thomas, On-The-Tree in the preparation and serving of breakfast for the Convocation. Since our plan was to leave after lunch, we had to pack and load and leave for Eagle Butte at 6:15 a.m. We made it and helped prepare and serve, as well as clean up afterward.

The concluding Holy Eucharist was presided over by Bishop John Tarrant. The total attendance was somewhat over 200 people. It was a moving experience. The Rev. Canon Cornelia Eaton from a Navajo Colony in Arizona presented an absolutely inspirational sermon.

After the concluding sack lunch, we left for home. We made it to Willmar, MN the first night, quite a bit further than planned. We got an early start on Monday and by sharing driving, made the decision to keep going until we reached Hale, MI. The unanimous consensus was that the trip was wonderful and inspiring. We also left South Dakota feeling that we were appreciated for our contribution to the success of the 2016 Niobrara Convocation.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Phil Seitz

Report of the Outreach Ministry Committee to the Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan
September 2016

The Recovery Outreach Committee has continued in its mission to provide support for recovery groups within the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan, as well as to be an educational resource for increasing awareness within the Diocese about the nature of addiction & recovery. The committee underwent some changes over the past year, adding new members from the recovering community as well as losing some members for various reasons. The committee spent some time clarifying its mission, as well as its composition, this past year, with the goal of developing a more effective self-understanding. One area that has been discussed is whether the committee should try to be available as a support for the larger church, such as other Episcopal dioceses in Michigan as well as other denominations in the area. Besides providing information through daily postings on the committee's Facebook page, there was an opportunity to educate the students at the Academy for Vocational Leadership about the nature of addiction, codependency, relapse, and recovery. This was done in conjunction with the G.R.A.C.E. Center, and the students involved came from the 3 Episcopal dioceses of the Lower Michigan peninsula. This was an all-day affair, and the committee is grateful for the support of Archdeacon Anna Lee Kubbe and the Rev. Dr. Valerie Fargo for their invitation and support in this matter.

Another activity that the committee was able to organize and present was the annual 11th step retreat in early June, again in partnership with the G.R.A.C.E. Center. The retreat was once again well received by the participants, and they were excited about next year's retreat. There were 27 participants at this retreat, 5 more than last year. Many had also attended last year's retreat. The most recent work of the committee has been the preparation of three resolutions for submission to this convention. These resolutions are in response to three resolutions that were approved by last year's 78th General Convention of the Episcopal Church. These resolutions deal with how the larger Church should address the use of alcohol, as well as address & support clergy who may have substance abuse issues. Our hope is that the Diocese of Eastern Michigan will adopt these proposals.

Respectfully submitted,
Doug Pryor, Recovery Outreach Ministry Coordinator

Rev. Charles E. Curtis, Bishop's Chaplain to Retired Clergy & Spouses and Surviving Spouses

STANDING COMMITTEE

The Standing Committee of the diocese has six members. We are also members of the Diocesan Council. Our charge is to be a support to the bishop, to council on sensitive matters and to consider and to put a stamp of approval or not the election of bishops for the national church. On average we meet ten times a year either at the diocesan offices or on the internet through Adobe Connect. It is an honor and privilege to serve in this capacity.

Respectfully submitted,
Stephanie King, President of Standing Committee

TRUSTEE REPORT

The Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan started the 2016 year with an investment allocation of 73% Equities, 24% Bonds and 3% cash. Foreign stocks made up about 12% of the total. That allocation guided us through the year and as of September 30, 2016, our allocation was 72% equities, 23% Bonds and 5% cash. Foreign stocks now make up 10% of the total. For this time period (YTD through September 30th), the Diocese had an investment return of 3.94%. The S&P 500 was up 5.6% and the Dow Jones Average was up 4.7% for this same time period. US Broad Market Bonds were up 5.5%. Given our blended allocation of about 70% Equities / 30% Bonds and, our peer group benchmark would have been a positive 5.6%. We slightly underperformed this benchmark due to our higher exposure to Biotechnology at the beginning of the year. This weak performer has been replaced and we no longer hold this position. Overall our equity funds performed on average better than the market, and our bond holdings outperformed the US Broad Market index as well.

The trustees now manage the following funds:

- Main Endowment
- McMath, Batchelder and Demille Funds
- Breaking New Ground Fund
- The McElroy Fund
- The CDRF Fund
- Loans and Grants Fund
- Growth and Income Fund
- Charitable Contributions Fund

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Schuetz, Trustees Chair

RESOLUTIONS

The Report of the Resolutions Committee
Mrs. Amy Simons & The Rev. Charles Curtis

Resolution 1

WHEREAS Resolution A158 of the 78th General Convention of the Episcopal Church encourages dioceses, congregations, seminaries, schools, young adult ministries, and affiliated institutions to update their policies on the use of alcohol and other substances with the potential for misuse in accordance with the policy adopted by General Convention as documented in Resolution A158

BE IT RESOLVED that the 22nd Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan adopt the following on the use of alcohol and other substances with the potential for misuse and encourage all congregations within the Diocese to do the same.

1. The Church must provide a safe and welcoming environment for all people, including people in recovery.
2. All applicable federal, state and local laws should be obeyed, including those governing the serving of alcoholic beverages to minors.
3. Some dioceses and congregations may decide not to serve alcohol at events or gatherings. Others may decide to permit a limited use of alcoholic beverages at church-sponsored events. Both can be appropriate if approached mindfully.
4. When alcohol is served, it must be monitored and those showing signs of intoxication must not be served. Whenever alcohol is served, the Rector or Priest-in-Charge must appoint a person of legal drinking age to oversee its serving. That person must not drink alcoholic beverages during the time of his or her execution of his or her responsibilities. If hard liquor is served, a certified server is required.
5. Serving alcoholic beverages at congregational events where persons under the legal drinking age are present is strongly discouraged. If any are present, alcohol must be served at a separate station that is monitored at all times to prevent underage drinking.

6. Alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages must be clearly labeled as such. Food prepared with alcohol does not need to be labeled provided the alcohol is completely evaporated by the cooking process; however, it is recommended that even in this case the use of alcohol in cooking be noted on a label.
7. Whenever alcohol is served, appealing non-alcoholic alternatives must always be offered with equal prominence and accessibility.
8. The serving of alcoholic beverages at church events should not be publicized as an attraction of the event, e.g. “wine and cheese reception,” “cocktail party,” and “beer and wine tasting.”
9. Ministries inside or outside of congregations will make certain that alcohol consumption is not the focus of the ministry and that drinking alcohol is not an exclusively normative activity.
10. Food must be served when alcohol is present.
11. The groups or organizations sponsoring an activity or event at which alcoholic beverages are served must have permission from the Rector or Priest-in-Charge, or if there is none, of the vestry. Such groups or organizations must also assume responsibility for those persons who might become intoxicated and must provide alternative transportation for anyone whose capacity to drive may be impaired. Consulting with liability insurance carriers is advised.
12. Recognizing the effects of alcohol as a mood-altering drug, alcoholic beverages shall not be served when the business of the Church is being conducted.
13. Clergy shall consecrate an appropriate amount of wine when celebrating the Eucharist and perform ablutions in a way that does not foster or model misuse.
14. We encourage clergy to acknowledge the efficacy of receiving the sacrament in one kind and consider providing non-alcoholic wine.

ARTICLE II Loyalty

As a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the Diocese of Eastern Michigan accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, and acknowledges their authority.

ARTICLE III
The Bishop

A. The Bishop, an apostle of Jesus Christ, is the chief priest and pastor of this Diocese; in the exercise of this ministry the Bishop is its Ecclesiastical Authority. In case of the Bishop's absence or disability the Bishop may temporarily designate the Bishop Coadjutor as the Ecclesiastical Authority. If no Bishop is qualified and able to act, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority.

B. Whenever the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese make provision for action by the Bishop, such action, except where otherwise specifically provided, shall be taken by the Ecclesiastical Authority as defined above.

C. The Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese shall be elected in an Annual Convention or in a Special Convention called for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given at least sixty (60) days prior to such Convention. A two-thirds vote of those present and eligible to vote shall be required for election.

ARTICLE IV
The Convention

A. There shall be an Annual Convention of this Diocese as provided by Canon.

1. The Convention shall be composed of the following members with voice and vote: The Bishop, at least one lay delegate from each of the congregations in union with the Convention, and all deacons, presbyters, and other bishops canonically and actually resident within the Diocese. Any other baptized members of this Diocese who are present shall have voice but no vote.

a. The mode of determining the number of lay delegates, of electing lay delegates, and of admitting congregations into union with the Convention shall be prescribed by Canon.

b. The mode of identifying and determining those deacons, presbyters, and other bishops shall be prescribed by Canon.

c. Provision in the Canons may be made for the denial of vote at a Convention of which they may be members to lay delegates and clergy on the basis of failure to submit the Annual Parochial Report required in Title I, Canon 11, Section 2 (Of Parish and other Congregation Registers and Parochial Reports) of the Canons of this Diocese.

2. In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the lay delegates and clergy shall deliberate and vote in one body. A majority of those voting shall be required to approve any matter before the Convention, except proposals to amend the Constitution and Canons and to elect a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor.

3. The President of the Convention shall be the Bishop, or in the Bishop's absence the Bishop Coadjutor, or in the absence of both the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if any, the President of the Standing Committee. In the absence of all the foregoing the senior presbyter (by length of time in canonical residence in this Diocese) present shall call Convention to order, and the Convention shall elect a President pro tempore.

4. At each Annual Convention a Secretary shall be chosen, and shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until a successor be chosen. The Secretary shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by Convention and by Canon. If a vacancy occurs it may be filled by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee.

B. Special Conventions may be called:

1. by the Bishop or the Standing Committee, or

2. by the Standing Committee, if a petition to convene a Special Convention, signed by a majority of each of the governing boards (Vestry or Committee) of ten different congregations in union with the Convention of this Diocese, and also fifteen presbyters canonically and actually resident in this Diocese, is presented to the Standing Committee.

The convener shall notify the Secretary of the Convention specifying the purpose, date, time and place of the proposed Special Convention. members present and eligible to vote at such Convention.

ARTICLE VII

Amendments

A. Any proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the Convention at which it is to be considered. It shall then be filed by the Secretary of the Convention with any committee as determined by Canon, which committee shall report on the proposed amendment, with or without a recommendation, to the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty (60) days before the date of the Convention.

Sec. 2. Each lay delegate has one (1) vote in the Convention.

Sec. 3. Each lay delegate and alternate must be an adult (sixteen years of age or older) communicant in good standing (as defined by Title I, Canon 17, Sec. 2 and 3 (Of Regulations Respecting the Laity) of the Canons of the General Convention) in the congregation which they represent. No person under ecclesiastical censure is eligible to be a lay delegate or alternate to the Convention.

ecclesiastical discipline shall have a place in such list. The list thus made shall be laid before the Convention immediately after it shall have been called to order. It shall also be appended to the Journal, and sent to the Secretary of the General Convention. For the purposes of interpreting the phrase "actually resident in the Diocese," those clergy whose respective congregations or other places of assignment or appointment noted above are located within the Diocese shall be deemed to be actually resident, the location of their domiciles notwithstanding; for all other clergy the location of their domicile shall so determine.

Sec. 2. If the right of any of the clergy to a seat in the Convention is disputed, the Convention shall determine whether his or her name should be inserted or deleted in the list aforesaid according to the provisions of the Constitution.

Sec. 3. Any of the clergy who shall have failed to submit the annual report required by Title I, Canon 12, Sec. 2 by March 1 of any year, shall lose their vote at the next Annual Convention and any intervening Special Conventions, except as determined by the Bishop with the consent of the Convention.
