The complete list of Rules appears on page one in the Journal.

Delegates and clergy had received ballots at registration, and were asked to mark them at this time. Ballots were collected and election results were announced later in the business session.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Bishop Ousley recognized Mike Turnbull, Diocesan Treasurer, for the financial report. Mike described 2014 as a "flat" year for diocesan finances that ended with assets increasing $110,000 (net growth 1.1%). Total financial assets were $10 million. For 2014 operating income of $1,104,596, based on congregation income of $479,540, and other operating income of $625,056. We end 2014 with a surplus of just under $100,000.

Due to the market, investments have not done as well. The trustees have worked diligently at controlling costs and keeping in line with the market. 2015 Highlights this year include increase in the budget to support Coppage-Gordon, Camp Chickagami and McKenzie Bade as the youth director. We have updated technology with a new server in the diocese office. We had also removed ourselves as a separate building from condominium, which gives us more financial flexibility with the building. The website has also been updated. We are projecting a surplus of $22K after reserving $31K for future expenses.

2016 - 2018 budget assumptions expect giving to be similar with 95% congregation income, 5% drawn on Congregational Development & Redevelopment Fund, Breaking New Ground, Loans & Grants. 17.8% is our tithe to the National Church. We continue to budget $100,000 to Outreach for Social Service Network Grant, to fund Camp Chickagami for $10,000, and add more dollars for Coppage-Gordon & Camp Chickagami Youth Director.

We will utilize CDRF to fund additional diocesan programs. The plan is for a maximum budget for Loans and Grants Fund to be 10% of balance to a maximum of $50K.

Hats off to the trustees, who have beat the goals of the market analysis. The operating expenses for the past 3 years have been improving and we are now at 50/50 with Diocese Administration and Ministry Missions. The 2016 operating income is $1,294,830, expenses $1,338,271. Deficit spending is projected for the next 3 years. We consider this as an investment into our future, as we put dollars towards programs to develop and grow the diocese. We are predicting no increase in budget revenues from investments due to current market conditions. Net deficit estimation for 2016 - $125,291; 2017 - $159,260; 2018 - $189,633.

We have unrestricted net assets of $7M and project 3% return over the next 3 years. The balance sheet is very strong. To summarize, we are developing Mission Ministries by increasing support for Coppage-Gordon and Camp Chickagami, funding Social Service Network Grants for $100K and increasing programs to help clergy and congregations with loans and grants.

The Kingdom of God is like Jazz:
Becoming an Agile, Dynamic, and Gracious Church

I'm one of those music lovers whose taste runs the gamut from contemporary to traditional, baroque to blues, Latin rhythms to techno beats, fusion to Afro-pop, secular to spiritual. But most of all, I love jazz. Born of the inevitable encounter between African folk music and classical European forms, originating in the field hollers of plantation workers, jazz is highly contextual, adaptive, agile, dynamic, responsive, participatory, and improvisational. Or as jazz musician J.J. Johnson put it: "Jazz is restless. It won't stay put and it never will."

Restless. Fidgety. Toe-tapping and finger-drumming. Itching to do something. Impatient. Shaking off the bonds of convention. Experimenting. Taking risks. Making mistakes and sliding into unexpected notes and rhythms. All informed by tradition but not limited by it. That's jazz. And that's us. The Diocese of Eastern Michigan.

Let me play a few notes of the tradition and the improvisation that characterize the music we make.

- What would you do if someone shattered the glass and broke into your basement? Install a new alarm system and lose a bit more trust in the goodness of humanity? Not the folks at Calvary in Hillman who chose hope over fear and love over suspicion. An unexpected break-in on the night before their food pantry distribution led to an unexpected partnership in cleaning-up and breaking bread together. Clients and servers swept up, shared a meal and sowed the seeds of a crock pot ministry that empowers the powerless and feeds the hungry, physically and spiritually.
- With Flint and Saginaw ranked #3 & #4 respectively among the FBI's list of most violent cities, our churches and institutions are taking creative approaches to address issues around violence and injustice:
 - The Very Rev. Jay Gantz and the leadership team at St. Andrew's in Flint continue to stake a claim for Christ in the crime-ridden eastside of the city abandoned by many residents, businesses and churches. Tough, talking and in-your-face-honest, Fr. Jay has blended Anglo-Catholicism with 12-Step Spirituality and joined forces with the gritty determination of an unlikely band of parishioners to provide a space that feeds the body and the soul while unashamedly facing down the scourge of neighborhood violence.

- Meanwhile, in the central city, St. Paul's in Flint, under the leadership of the Rev. Dan Scheid, is deepening its partnerships with Crossover Ministries and Christ Enrichment Center to address issues of hunger, literacy, and repurposing of lives. Together, the Rector, Vestry, and congregation are becoming a more visible and prophetic witness for justice, most recently in response to the lack of adequate access to clean, healthy water.
- To the north, the Very Rev. Judy Boli and the leadership of St. Paul's Saginaw have mobilized their spiritual resources in a bold reclamation of God's land that has been desecrated by murder. With a team of parishioners and in conversation with residents, prayers are said and hymns are sung to re-sanctify land where a senseless loss of life has occurred.
- With Michigan as the only state to lose population in the last census update and with the population of our diocese aging, it could seem counter-intuitive to focus energies on youth and young adults, but that's exactly what's happening at Transfiguration in Indian River. This older congregation in a resort and seasonal community is reaching out to all ages with its innovative intergenerational Christian Formation program, Messy Church, led by Missy Harrison. Additionally, like the older congregation at St. Elizabeth's in Higgins Lake, they send numerous local children to summer camp at Camp Chickagami --- mostly non-parishioners.
- Camp Chickagami continued its phenomenal growth in 2015 with 194 campers --- almost double the previous year --- re-establishing itself as the centerpiece of diocesan ministry with youth, young adults and families. With an even more ambitious program and expansion of camping opportunities in 2016, Camp Chickagami will require additional creative support and energies in the years to come. The calling of McKenzie Bade to serve as Facilitator of Youth and Young Adult Networks and as the first Executive Director of Camp Chick is a bold and risky move designed to enhance our ministries not only through summer camp but also through support and encouragement of ministry networks of youth and young adults.
- Both Bishop Bill Gordon, our spiritual founder, and Ed Leidel, our first bishop, partnered with the people of Eastern Michigan to be responsive to local contexts and to risk boldly for the Gospel. That spirit continues with such experiments as the one between St. John the Baptist in Otter Lake, Grace in Lapeer and St. John's in Dryden. Casting aside the old models of one priest for one congregation or one priest spread too thin among multiple congregations, they've embraced a model of abundance over scarcity that has four priests serving the sacramental needs of three congregations while maintaining the integrity of each congregation's operation. Over the course of the years they've embraced this model, it has been dynamic, ever-changing and open to adaptation.

- Adding to the mix of sacramental leadership models already in place, 2016 will see the formal introduction of Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest, whereby those congregations entering a covenant with their bishop will be allowed access to a liturgical form that will provide communion on a regular basis even in the absence of a priest. This experimental provision stretches our canonical boundaries while maintaining a faithfulness to the tradition --- a clear example of ecclesiastical jazz.
- Formation opportunities for individuals and congregations have expanded in 2015 with the initiation of the Diocesan Congregational Development Institute under the leadership of Canon Mike Spencer and in collaboration with the Diocese of Western Michigan with support from the Diocese of Northern Indiana. Through the Institute, congregational teams of clergy and laity from both Eastern and Western Michigan are being empowered for more faithful and effective ministry in their local contexts. The Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry, under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Val Fargo, continues to collaborate with the Dioceses of Michigan and a new partner, the Diocese of Western Michigan. Their collaboration, known as the Academy for Vocational Leadership, provides a time- and cost-effective local program of formation for ordination as deacon or priest. Furthermore, The Biblical Wild, an award-winning teaching series produced by Katie Forsyth, continues to reach individuals and groups within and outside the diocese with an exploration of each book of the bible.
- Experimentation and collaboration are essential elements of jazz as is openness to where the music and the spirit take you. Reaching across congregational, denominational, and racial boundaries, churches in the Blue Water area have continued a series of “Community Conversations on Race” designed to address the ongoing legacy of slavery and racial injustice in our country. Unlike many such conversations that quickly lose momentum, they have widened the circle and developed increased energy for finding ways to talk about important spiritual matters that divide us. This same area of the diocese continues to engage in an effort known as the Blue Water Initiative, designed to bring together congregational leaders from across the region to explore ways in which networked and collaborative ministries might be developed. The work is experimental and improvisational and sometimes defies convention. Sounds a lot like jazz.
- A convergence of dreams for a new kind of diaconate and the rise of passionate voices for justice led to the emergence of a Social Justice Network, focused on mobilizing to address justice issues around violence, poverty, and health. More information can be found on Facebook at the Social Justice Network of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan.

On a slightly different note, I have to say a word or two about Barb Meikle, faithful Assistant to the Bishop for the past thirteen years. She’s been the gracious voice of welcome and symbol of hospitality for the Diocese and the one to keep both Bishop Leidel and me organized. Content to play a behind-the-scenes role, she's uncomfortable with attention being drawn to her and is no doubt blushing at this moment, so I won't draw out any further my thanks and appreciation. I do hope you will join me in giving thanks for Barb's ministry among us these past years and wish her and Bob a joyous retirement. Barb, if I've embarrassed you, well . . . as they say in Canada. Sorry. [CLAP]

Two final words before I close: first, I continue to give thanks for the tremendous privilege of serving with you as Bishop of Eastern Michigan. Your tenacity, your spirit and your willingness to stretch the boundaries provide me the grace notes necessary take more risks, make more mistakes in service of holy possibility, and to slide into unexpected rhythms of life and ministry. Second, I'll turn the closing of this year's Bishop's Address over to a voice of the present and the future: Ryan Zavacky, member of St. John's Alma, 2014 graduate of Alma College, and one who has recently completed his year-long commitment to the Episcopal Church's Young Adult Service Corps. Ryan . . . (video message thanking everyone for the support of the diocese and his church. He spoke of the importance of loving service.)

The Right Reverend Todd Ousley
II Bishop

COMMITTEE REPORTS SUBMITTED TO CONVENTION

As of October 19, 2015

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY REPORT

This past year COM reevaluated its role according to the canons and will now seek to actively support lay ministry development.

The following is the recently created Mission Statement of the Commission of Ministry:
To assist all individuals, alongside the Office of the Bishop, in fulfilling their call to ministry.

Scripture to support our Mission Statement:

The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ. Ephesians 4:11-12

The means to accomplish our Mission:

1. Provide resources to assist all God's people as they discern their gifts for ministry.
2. Support the ministry of all God's people.
3. Oversee the discernment of those seeking ordination.
4. Support the Bishop in articulating the ministry of Christ.

This past year, COM has developed guidelines for persons serving internships in preparation for ordination. We are currently collaborating with the director of the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry regarding the formation process of some people in the ordination process. We are actively involved in supporting the discernment process. In addition, we have developed a process of orientation for new COM members.

Since Oct. 2014, the bishop has taken the following actions after consulting with COM. The Rev. Dr. Val Fargo and the Rev. Allan Feltner were ordained as priests.

COM currently has eleven members who have been appointed by the bishop, five lay persons and six clergy. The Canons provide for six lay persons and six clergy to serve on COM.

Members of COM in 2014-2015 included: The Rev Heather Barta, The Rev. Daniel Cannon, The Rev. Sue Colavincenzo, Ms. Missy Harrison, The Rev. Pam Lynch, Ms. Beverly Mills, The Rev. Sharon Naughton, Mr. Jon Steele, Ms. Doris Sutton, Ms. Joyce Thewalt, and The Rev. Sharon Voelker. Ex-officio member: The Rt. Rev. Todd Ousley

These members of COM have served with integrity, diligence, and generosity.

Sue Colavincenzo, Chairperson of COM for the Diocese of Eastern Michigan

COPPAGE-GORDON SCHOOL FOR MINISTRY

2015 has been a busy year for the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry. In June we completed the first year of the Academy for Vocational Leadership, our new three-year program of preparation for ordination. In September five students began their second year at the Academy, and they were joined by 12 new first year students representing the dioceses of Eastern Michigan, Michigan, and Western Michigan. The Academy for Vocational Leadership is a joint program of the three dioceses and uses a curriculum created by the Iona Initiative in the Diocese of Texas. This curriculum provides a combination of academic and practical courses which are being taught by individuals from both Eastern Michigan and Michigan. There are currently 18 dioceses participating in the Iona Initiative.

The Academy gathers one weekend a month at the Colombiere Conference Center in Clarkston. The academic classes meet on Saturday and are open to anyone who is interested in exploring these topics: Holy Scripture and Church History. Typically we have 4 – 6 people join us for these Saturday classes.

In addition, this year Coppage-Gordon has provided two sessions of worship leader training, the preaching practicum, a workshop on pastoral care and end of life issues, and several Safeguarding God's People trainings. A joint workshop with the Diocese of Michigan on Music in the Small Church will take place on November 7.

We anticipate expanding our offerings in 2016 in the following areas: worship leader training focused on Holy Week; Listening Servants: Discernment for Everyone; and pastoral care. Also, we have been invited to participate in a pilot project with the Episcopal Preaching Foundation. This project focuses on peer learning groups for clergy ordained less than 10 years who will learn from each other as they share their experience of preaching.

Respectfully submitted by the Rev. Dr. Valerie Fargo, Director Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry

CHEYENNE RIVER EPISCOPAL MISSION, SOUTH DAKOTA

The mission trip began on Saturday June 20, 2015. Our group consisted of 10 individuals from around the Diocese of Eastern Michigan. We gathered together at Trinity Church, West Branch at about 7:30 a.m. and loaded up for our trip. Prior to departure the ten of us, plus a few well-wishers, set aside our activities and shared in Morning Prayer.

In the past, the mission team borrowed a covered trailer that was used to haul tools and equipment to the reservation. However, this year a new cargo trailer was purchased for the trip, and the diocese now has an Episcopal Mission Team Trailer. The trailer has been outfitted with shelves for storage, and the exterior displays the Episcopal Shield, and the Diocesan Seal, along with the title Diocese of Eastern Michigan Mission Team. All of this is displayed on both sides of the trailer.

Our first two days were spent in travel, about 1,100 miles in all. We arrived in Mobridge S.D. about 6:00 p.m. mountain time. Our first priority was to gather for evening prayer and give thanks for safe travel. We then rested for the evening, and prepared for our first day at Blackfoot. However, we had heavy rain all night.

The parish warden called early to tell us that the road to Ascension Blackfoot was impassable, and we would need to wait until afternoon to venture out. We finally got to the church early afternoon on Monday, and proceeded to get organized. The remainder of the week went well and we were able to construct an exterior shelter adjacent to the church, and completely clear the cemetery of weeds, and heavy grass. There were many sightings of snakes about the area, but only one confirmed rattle snake sighting was made..... (Thanks be to God)

The team gave many long hours of hard work to accomplish the requested tasks. Part of our team worked on building the structure, and pouring concrete, while others worked to clean, and rake the 2+ acre cemetery, along with setting up head stones and cataloging the graves.

This year there was no VBS held. The reason was that the church at Blackfoot was so far removed that there were not enough children available to do the program. Ascension Blackfoot is located in the extreme north east corner of the reservation, and is approximately 80 – 90 miles from Eagle Butte. Therefore, it was not logistically possible to work in both locations. The trip, however, was a great success. We made many new friends, and strong loving relationships. We enjoyed working side by side, and as well as sharing daily Morning and Evening prayer with our Native American friends, along with Sunday Eucharist prior to our departure. Our worship time brought all of us together as one body in Christ, making lasting relationships.

We shared much of ourselves with our new friends, and they responded in a loving, caring manner that will be remembered for a lifetime. Of course we are already anticipating the mission trip for 2016. We are thankful for all the support that has been given over the years, and we pray for the continuing support by those in our diocese, that we may continue in our efforts to be a part of building God's Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted, Rev. Allan Feltner, Mission Project Coordinator

RECOVERY OUTREACH MINISTRY REPORT

The past year since the 2014 Diocesan Convention has been active in several areas for the Recovery Outreach Ministry. Time was spent on gaining more information regarding what parishes in the Diocese would like to have presented regarding substance abuse issues from the Ministry. The Ministry was also able to be involved in a consultation with one of the Diocesan parishes on how to handle interventions, which the parish found helpful.

The Ministry's most demanding project was to host a retreat for members of the various 12-Step Recovery Groups within the State. The theme focused on "Wounded Healers" and was attended by 22 people in various kinds of Recovery. The Diocese provided $1000 in seed money so that partial scholarships could be given to allow some of the participants to afford the cost of the retreat. 6 individuals were able to benefit from this gift. The cost of the retreat was relatively low, yet it allowed for the Diocesan seed money to not be used. It is expected that there will be a larger number of participants for next year's retreat, given how well the 2015 retreat was received and enjoyed. It was made clear by the participants of the 2015 retreat that they wanted another one developed for the summer of 2016, and there have been a number of inquiries about this future retreat from interested parties who hadn't attended the 2015 retreat. As such, it is hoped that the Diocesan seed money could be kept and used for next year's retreat, allowing more members to attend on a partial scholarship who couldn't otherwise afford the full cost.

The Ministry's most recent endeavor was to review the resolutions presented during the General Convention that related specifically to the issue of substance abuse within the Church and ways to reduce the risk of this occurring. The Ministry found these resolutions rather helpful in confirming its own direction, and has been seeking to develop a resolution for the 2015 Diocesan Convention in support of these General Convention resolutions. The Ministry will be continuing its review of these General Convention resolutions, with the goal of seeking ways to encourage their implementation within the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan.

Respectfully Submitted, Doug Pryor, Recovery Outreach Ministry Coordinator

There are 13 Retired Clergy from the Diocese of Eastern Michigan who now live in other dioceses. There are 5 Surviving Spouses of clergy canonically resident in the Diocese of Eastern Michigan at the time of their deaths who now live in other dioceses.

Respectfully submitted by The Rev. Charles E. Curtis Bishop's Chaplain to Retired Clergy & Spouses and Surviving Spouses

THE SOCIAL JUSTICE NETWORK REPORT

The Episcopal Church has a commitment to maintain justice, contend against evil and oppose oppression. The Collect for Social Justice in our Book of Common Prayer reads: "...Grant us grace fearlessly to contend against evil and to make no peace with oppression; and that we may reverently use our freedom, help us to employ it in maintenance of justice in our communities and among the nations, to the glory of your holy Name...."

This prayer is the foundation of the newly formed Social Justice Network of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan. The network was formed early in 2015 when Archdeacon Kubbe brought together community activists and deacons from the Diocese of Eastern Michigan. In a group, those invited to the first meetings explored the formation of a network of social activism in the name of Christian love for our communities.

Prayer, commitment and the support provided through successful networking has helped the Social Justice Network of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan (SJN) take root and thrive. The network has established a Facebook page, incorporating the talents of our Diocesan Director of Communications and Public Engagement, Katie Forsyth. Invitations to participate in the SJN members' individual projects are extended. Members report on actions taken and to remind the people of Eastern Michigan that Jesus taught us to be fearless in our work.

The following are examples of the work the SJN has already begun.

CONVERSATIONS ON RACE: The SJN invites activism by planting the seeds of conversation and sharing. Several conversations on race have been held in both Port Huron and Flint. The ideal is to open eyes, hearts and minds. The goal is to invite activists in our conversations to work for change.

FEEDING THE HUNGRY, CLOTHING THE NAKED, PROTECTING THE VULNERABLE: SJN social activists deliver food, clothing, school supplies, and household items to those in our communities struggling to survive. Activists for justice advocate for changing the system which causes poverty. For example, SJN activists work for better funding of support services for victims of crime, improved economic justice through better schools and equitable economic policies to bring opportunity to the vulnerable poor.

ADVOCATING FOR REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE: The SJN has joined the Interfaith Reproductive Justice Coalition of Michigan. The Mission of the coalition is to bring reproductive justice to Michigan, and advocate for the social, economic, educational and health-based programs needed to raise healthy children through successful parenting.

RESPONSE TO GUN VIOLENCE: The SJN, in collaboration with the Episcopal Peace Fellowship will sponsor a December 2015 event to commemorate the third anniversary of the Sandy Hook shootings.

Jesus said, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." The SJN has said, "Yes, we will follow you. And, we bring our nets with us."

TRUSTEES REPORT

The primary responsibility of the Trustees of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan is to manage the investment accounts of the diocese, which total over nine million dollars. We meet four times a year with our financial consultant John McDonald of Merrill Lynch to review our results and make appropriate changes in our investments.

The return on our investments has consistently exceeded most of the widely accepted industry benchmarks. Our total return in 2014 was 4.97% and our return as of September 1, 2015, was a positive 0.19%.

A. The Bishop, an apostle of Jesus Christ, is the chief priest and pastor of this Diocese; in the exercise of this ministry the Bishop is its Ecclesiastical Authority. In case of the Bishop's absence or disability the Bishop may temporarily designate the Bishop Coadjutor as the Ecclesiastical Authority. If no Bishop is qualified and able to act, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority.

B. Whenever the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese make provision for action by the Bishop, such action, except where otherwise specifically provided, shall be taken by the Ecclesiastical Authority as defined above.

C. The Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese shall be elected in an Annual Convention or in a Special Convention called for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given at least sixty (60) days prior to such Convention. A two-thirds vote of those present and eligible to vote shall be required for election.

ARTICLE IV
The Convention

A. There shall be an Annual Convention of this Diocese as provided by Canon.

1. The Convention shall be composed of the following members with voice and vote: The Bishop, at least one lay delegate from each of the congregations in union with the Convention, and all deacons, presbyters, and other bishops canonically and actually resident within the Diocese. Any other baptized members of this Diocese who are present shall have voice but no vote.

 - b. The mode of identifying and determining those deacons, presbyters, and other bishops shall be prescribed by Canon.
 - c. Provision in the Canons may be made for the denial of vote at a Convention of which they may be members to lay delegates and clergy on the basis of failure to submit the Annual Parochial Report required in Title I, Canon 11, Section 2 (Of Parish and other Congregation Registers and Parochial Reports) of the Canons of this Diocese.

2. In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the lay delegates and clergy shall deliberate and vote in one body. A majority of those voting shall be required to approve any matter before the Convention, except proposals to amend the Constitution and Canons and to elect a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor.

3. The President of the Convention shall be the Bishop, or in the Bishop's absence the Bishop Coadjutor, or in the absence of both the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if any, the President of the Standing Committee. In the absence of all the foregoing the senior presbyter (by length of time in canonical residence in this Diocese) present shall call Convention to order, and the Convention shall elect a President pro tempore.

4. At each Annual Convention a Secretary shall be chosen, and shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until a successor be chosen. The Secretary shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by Convention and by Canon. If a vacancy occurs it may be filled by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee.

B. Special Conventions may be called:

1. by the Bishop or the Standing Committee, or
2. by the Standing Committee, if a petition to convene a Special Convention, signed by a majority of each of the governing boards (Vestry or Committee) of ten different congregations in union with the Convention of this Diocese, and also fifteen presbyters canonically and actually resident in this Diocese, is presented to the Standing Committee.

The convener shall notify the Secretary of the Convention specifying the purpose, date, time and place of the proposed Special Convention. The Secretary of the Convention shall give notice to the lay delegates and clergy of the Special Convention in a manner as provided by Canon. The business at such Special Convention shall be limited to the matters set forth in that notice.

ARTICLE V

Convocations

Regions of the Diocese to be known as Convocations shall be created as prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE VI

Canons

Canons, not in conflict with this Constitution, may be adopted by the Convention to implement the provisions of this Constitution and to prescribe the operation of this Diocese. Such proposed Canons or amendments thereto may be adopted, which shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote at such Convention.

ARTICLE VII

Amendments

A. Any proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the Convention at which it is to be considered. It shall then be filed by the Secretary of the Convention with any committee as determined by Canon, which committee shall report on the proposed amendment, with or without a recommendation, to the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty (60) days before the date of the Convention.

B. The Secretary shall mail copies of the proposed amendment, including any such report, to the lay delegates and clergy of the Convention at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such Convention, and shall report the same to the Convention.

C. When such proposed amendment is before the Convention for first consideration, changes may be made during the debate and before the final vote.

D. If such proposed amendment, with any changes made during the debate, is approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote, it shall lie over to the next Annual Convention for final approval or rejection.

E. When such a proposed amendment comes before the next Annual Convention for final approval, its reading shall be the first order of business. If the amendment is adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote, such amendment shall be effective immediately and shall govern all matters coming before the same Convention and thereafter.

THE CANONS OF THE DIOCESE OF EASTERN MICHIGAN

TITLE I: ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

CANON 1 Of Lay Delegates

Sec. 1. Each congregation in union with the Convention is entitled to a maximum of four (4) lay delegates to the Convention, and to a corresponding number of alternate delegates. Immediately upon the admission of a congregation into union with the Convention its delegates shall be entitled to vote.

Sec. 2. Each lay delegate has one (1) vote in the Convention.

Sec. 3. Each lay delegate and alternate must be an adult (sixteen years of age or older) communicant in good standing (as defined by Title I, Canon 17, Sec. 2 and 3 (Of Regulations Respecting the Laity) of the Canons of the General Convention) in the congregation which they represent. No person under ecclesiastical censure is eligible to be a lay delegate or alternate to the Convention.

Sec. 4. The lay delegates and alternates are to be elected by a simple majority of the members present at the Annual Meeting of the congregation to serve from the time of election. The Clerk of the Vestry shall send a Congregational Data Form containing the names and addresses of the newly elected lay delegates and alternates to the Secretary of the Convention at the Diocesan Center on or before March 1 each year. If, at the time of the Annual or any Special Convention, a congregation has fewer than four (4) duly elected Delegates and Alternates willing to serve, the Vestry of that congregation may elect a sufficient number of qualified persons to so serve. The Clerk of the Vestry shall provide a list of such persons to the Secretary of the Convention before such persons may be recognized as Delegates and/or Alternates.

Sec. 5. The lay delegates of any congregation which has failed to file the annual report required by Title I, Canon 12, Sec. 2 on or before March 1 of any year shall lose their vote at the next Annual Convention and any intervening Special Conventions, except as determined by the Bishop with the consent of the Convention.

CANON 2 Of a List of the Clergy

Sec. 1. On or before the day of the meeting of the Diocesan Convention the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, the President of the Standing Committee shall cause to be prepared a List of the Clergy, consisting of all bishops, priests and deacons, canonically and actually resident in the Diocese, annexing to the names of the deacons the name of the congregation, other community of faith, or non-parochial ministry to which the deacon is assigned as in Title III, Canon 7, Section 4 (Of the Life and Work of Deacons) of the Canons of the General Convention, and to the names of priests the name of the congregation, chaplaincy or other setting (non-parochial) to which the priest is appointed as in Title III, Canon 9, Section 3 (Of the Life and Work of Priests) of the Canons of the General Convention; but no clergy while under ecclesiastical discipline shall have a place in such list. The list thus made shall be laid before the Convention immediately after it shall have been called to order. It shall also be appended to the Journal, and sent to the Secretary of the General Convention. For the purposes of interpreting the phrase "actually resident in the Diocese," those clergy whose respective congregations or other places of assignment or appointment noted above are located within the Diocese shall be deemed to be actually resident, the location of their domiciles notwithstanding; for all other clergy the location of their domicile shall so determine.

Sec. 2. If the right of any of the clergy to a seat in the Convention is disputed, the Convention shall determine whether his or her name should be inserted or deleted in the list aforesaid according to the provisions of the Constitution.

Sec. 3. Any of the clergy who shall have failed to submit the annual report required by Title I, Canon 12, Sec. 2 by March 1 of any year, shall lose their vote at the next Annual Convention and any intervening Special Conventions, except as determined by the Bishop with the consent of the Convention.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of all clergy having a vote in the Convention to attend every meeting thereof unless excused by the Bishop.

Sec. 5. Reference in the Canons of this Diocese to ordained persons or to clergy is intended to include bishops, presbyters, and deacons without any distinction or differentiation, except where reference to one or more of those orders is specifically made.

CANON 3 Of the Annual and Special Conventions

Sec. 1. The Diocese will hold an Annual Convention in accordance with Article IV of the Constitution. The date, time, and place shall be determined by the previous Convention; but if the date, time, and place shall not have been so appointed, it shall be determined by the Bishop. The Bishop or Standing Committee calling a Special Convention shall give the Secretary of the Convention reasonable notice as to the proposed date, time, place, and purpose of such Special Convention.

Conventions shall be held in various locations throughout the Diocese.

Sec. 2. The Secretary of the Convention shall give written notice of the date, time, and place of any Convention, annual or special.

(a) Notices will be sent to the lay delegates of the congregations in union with the Convention and to all clergy canonically and actually resident in the Diocese.

(b) Notices of Annual Conventions must be transmitted no less than ninety (90) days prior to the Convention date. Notices of a Special Convention must be sent at least thirty (30) days prior to the Convention date and shall contain the purpose for which the Convention is being called. Notices of a Special Convention for the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor must be sent at least sixty (60) days prior to the Convention date and contain the purpose for which the Convention is being called.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Convention is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the agenda for the Convention.

Sec. 4. Lay delegates entitled to vote from no less than one-half of the congregations in union with the Convention and at least one-half of the List of Clergy prepared according to Title I, Canon 2, Section 1 constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 5. The Bishop shall appoint members to the following committees. All committee members hold office from the close of the Convention at which they were appointed until the close of business of the following Annual Convention.
