TREASURER’S REPORT
Bishop Waynick recognized Mr. Mike Turnbull, Diocesan Treasurer for the financial report.

Mike Turnbull reviews our 2016 year end and the Diocesan budgets for 2018 – 2020. 2016 ended with $9.2 million in assets. This is a decrease of $116,000 from 2015. The net assets of the Diocese of Eastern Michigan in 2016 are $9.2 million.

For 2016 year end, we ended with a small deficit of $27,000 after reserves.

For 2017, we are estimating surplus operating of $215,000 which includes a transfer of $213,000 from Breaking New Ground Fund. Estimations after non-operating income/expenditures, transfers and reserves, leave a small surplus of $33,000.

The 2017 financial highlights included building and parking lot repairs, sales of church property in the amount of $167,000, transfer of funds from Breaking New Ground in the amount of $213,000 in 2017, and $100,000 in both 2018 and 2019. We will continue to fund Coppage-Gordon and Camp Chickagami Youth Director over the next two years. Operations break even.

In the 2018 – 2020 budget, we will continue the National Church commitment of 16.5%, and continue to budget reserves for future Diocesan outreach of $100,000 per annum. Camp Chickagami will also continue to be funded in the amount of $10,000 per annum. McElroy Reserves will be used up in 2018. Coppage-Gordon and Camp Chickagami/Youth directors funding will continue. Maximum funding for Loans and Grants request will be 10% of the fund balance.

Congregational income is projected to remain flat in the 2018 – 2020 budget. Budget deficits are projected for all three years. This does not take in account investment gains or losses. Reserves are set aside for future expenditures and we have long term operational reserves of $394,000.

In summary, the Diocese will continue to support Coppage Gordon and Camp Chickagami with evaluation of the programs over the next two years. There will be continued outreach funding of $100,000 through the Social Service Council and the Loans and Grants Fund will be available to the congregations. The long term mission and ministry in the Diocese will be possible through financial discipline and determining what needs should be funded to help the diocese and the wider church.

Budget was received by the convention delegates.

Camp Chickagami Report 2017

Camp Chickagami is the camp and retreat center of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan. As a spiritual home for the diocese, Chickagami offers summer youth camping for ages 8-16, young adult ministry with staff members starting at 16 years of age, facilitated retreats, and space for rental groups from inside and outside of the diocese.
This summer we held eight programs over about five weeks and welcomed 180 campers in total.

We had 30 young adult staff members this year, 57% of whom are previous campers.

We increased in number of campers for the 5th year in a row.

We held our first ever Women's Retreat and welcomed 21 women from within and outside of the diocese for three days exploring spirituality and prayer.

We had 23 rental groups totaling 423 people in 2017 including congregational retreats, school and community groups, and family vacations.

We continue to provide excellent, Episcopal summer camping experiences to the diocese and look forward to welcoming returning and new campers in the future.

Commission on Ministry Report 2017

The following is the Mission Statement of the Commission of Ministry:
To assist all individuals, alongside the Office of the Bishop, in fulfilling their call to ministry.

Scripture to support our Mission Statement:
The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ. Ephesians 4:11-12

The means to accomplish our Mission:
1. Provide resources to assist all God's people as they discern their gifts for ministry.
2. Support the ministry of all God's people.
3. Oversee the discernment of those seeking ordination.
4. Support the Bishop in articulating the ministry of Christ.

This past year, COM has made revisions to the ordination manual, clarifying the guidelines, checklist, and the timeline. We strive to be actively engaged in the discernment process and in supporting vestry involvement for all those seeking ordination. One of the goals of COM is to encourage more effective communication between all persons who are involved in this holy process, providing clarification where needed.

We support the work of the Canon to the Ordinary Michael Spencer and the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry in their efforts in lay ministry training and development. During the coming year, COM will spend time studying ways to develop and encourage lay ministry in our diocese.

Since Oct. 2016, Bishop Todd Ousley has taken the following actions after consulting with COM. The Rev. Wendy Brown and the Rev. Nancy Mayhew were ordained transitional deacons.
COM currently has eight members who have been appointed by the bishop, five lay persons and three clergy. Members of COM as of Oct. 20, 2017: The Rev. Sue Colavincenzo, Ms. Emily Klein, The Rev. Anna Leigh Kubbe, The Rev. Pam Lynch, Ms. Ellen McVey, Mr. Jon Steele, Ms. Doris Sutton, Ms. Joyce Thewalt, and Ex-officio member through June 30, 2017: The Rt. Rev. Todd Ousley. The Standing Committee will act as the bishop in matters of COM and the ordination process until such time that we do have a bishop, provisional or otherwise. We would like to thank The Rev. Sharon Voelker and the Rev. Sharon Naughton for their service in this ministry. Both were valuable voices of discernment and their gifts will be missed. We would also like to thank Ms. Angela Krueger for her patience and excellence in working with COM. Members of COM have served with integrity, diligence, and generosity of spirit. I thank them.

Respectfully submitted by The Rev. Sue Colavincenzo, COM Chairperson for the Diocese of Eastern Michigan

Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry

June 17, 2017 marked an important moment for the Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry as we celebrated the graduation of the first class from the Academy for Vocational Leadership. The Academy provides the educational component of preparation for local ordination to holy orders. This three-year joint program with the Dioceses of Michigan and Western Michigan has just begun its fourth year with 18 students, and we anticipate beginning a new class in September 2018.

The Academy classes in Bible, Church History, and Theology and Ethics, held once a month on a Saturday, are open to anyone interested in exploring these topics. Participation in the Bible class or a comparable program is now an expectation for those seeking to become licensed preachers in the Diocese of Eastern Michigan.

This year Coppage-Gordon also provided leadership formation opportunities through Safeguarding trainings and worship leader training, as well as a class focused on funeral planning for worship leaders. A new offering in 2017 is a Social Justice Series with sessions that explore community organizing, asset-based community development and the theology of social justice.

Respectfully submitted by The Rev. Dr. Valerie Fargo, Director, Coppage-Gordon School for Ministry

Recovery Outreach Ministry:

This past year, the Committee has continued in its role as promoter of awareness about addiction & recovery issues within the Eastern Diocese of Eastern Michigan, as well as reaching out to those dealing with addiction & codependency. It has also had several people show interest in joining the committee from the recovery movement, as well as share in its ministry. It has also supported the enactment of National Episcopal Church Resolutions, regarding the handling of alcohol and other mood-altering drugs within the Church.
The Committee spent some time reviewing the results of its proposals at the Annual Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan’s Convention in November, wherein it encouraged the acceptance of the proposals regarding training clergy regarding dealing with substance abuse issues, developing methods for reaching out towards those clergy struggling with such issues, and clarifying how churches should handle the use of alcohol at social & religious functions. The first two proposals were readily accepted by the delegates, but the 3rd proposal, regarding how churches should handle the use of alcohol, generated a lively discussion which was finally resolved through tabling the proposal until Diocesan Council could review ways for its implementation. At this point, due to other significant issues that the Council is currently facing, the alcohol-related proposal has not been addressed.

As has been done twice before, the Committee once again partnered with the G.R.A.C.E. Center to present another yearly 11th Step retreat for all 12-Step groups, held in early June-2017 at the CYO Girls Camp near Port Sanilac, MI. The theme of the retreat was “Falling into Grace”, and focused on dealing with life’s difficulties and chaos and finding Spiritual Peace. There were 35 participants, 8 more than the previous year. As before, many of the participants had been involved in earlier retreats led by the Committee. The response to the retreat theme, activities and setting was very favorable, and many stated their intentions to return for the next retreat held by the Committee. The retreat costs were kept the same as previous years, and there were funds available to provide partial scholarships to those in need. The next scheduled 11th Step retreat is June 1, 2, & 3rd, 2018, to be held at the same place.

Respectfully submitted by Doug Pryor, Recovery Outreach Coordinator

Standing Committee Report, 2016-17

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Eastern Michigan has had a busier than normal year. It addition to the routine canonical duties assigned to us, we received the resignation of our Diocesan Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Todd Ousley; we helped make provision for his smooth exit from our diocese to his new position on the staff of the Presiding Bishop; we took on the canonical role, in the absence of a bishop, as the Ecclesiastical Authority for the diocese; we oversaw, in cooperation with diocesan council, the pastoral and administrative business of the diocese; and we, in consultation with diocesan council, initiated and completed the search for the Rt. Rev. Catherine (Cate) Waynick, the nominee for Bishop-Provisional for a one-year term, half-time, to be presented for election by the 23rd Diocesan Convention. With the bishop-provisional in place, we will turn over the Ecclesiastical Authority to Bishop Waynick, resume our routine canonical duties, and oversee the continuing diocesan process of self-study and transition to prepare for a new bishop.

Respectfully submitted by The Rev. Dan Scheid, President, Standing Committee

Trustee Report

Management and the Diocesan Council
Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan
Saginaw, Michigan

We have completed our audit of the financial statements of The Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2016, and have issued our report dated April 20, 2017.

Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our engagement letter dated December 1, 2016. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Organization are described in Note 1 of the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during the year. We noted no transactions entered into by the Organization during the year where there is lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management’s knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimates affecting Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan’s financial statements were:

- Management’s estimate of the functional allocation of expenses is based on the Organization’s cost allocation methodology.
- Management’s estimate of the useful lives of depreciable capital assets is based on the length of time it is believed that those assets will provide some economic benefit in the future.

Disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent and clear.
Accounting Standards and Regulatory Updates

- Revenue Recognition
  There is a new revenue recognition (exchange transactions not contributions) standard that will be applicable for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2019. However, if comparative financial statements are presented, all years shown will need to follow the same guidance. Therefore, for comparative financial statements, this new standard may need to be run side by side with the existing standard for the year ending December 31, 2018. The new standard has a five step process for recognizing revenue.

  1) Identify the contract with the customer.
  2) Identify the performance obligations within the contract.
  3) Determine the transaction price.
  4) Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligation.
  5) Recognize revenue when the performance obligation is met.

  This standard aligns all revenue recognition to similar concepts, rather than industry specific standards. In addition, it discusses some concepts, such as material rights and performance obligations for “free” goods and services that may not have been covered in previous standards. Look for additional guidance to be released in the future as the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) wrestles with implementation of many nuances of this standard.

- FASB Update – Financial Reporting for Nonprofits
  FASB has issued ASU 2016-14 detailing changes to financial statement presentation for nonprofit entities that will be one of the largest overhauls in financial reporting for nonprofits in nearly two decades. The changes will come in two rounds of issuance, with the second still in deliberations.

  Here are some key changes of which you should be aware:
  - Net asset classifications will be reduced to “With donor restrictions” and “Without donor restrictions” and additional disclosures will be necessary.
  - Underwater endowments will be listed at the current value (underwater) in the donor restricted net assets and will have additional disclosures including policies for spending.
  - Investment income will be reported net of investment expenses
  - Potentially all not-for-profits may need to do a “statement” of functional expenses for operating expenses as either a basic statement or a disclosure, regardless of entity type.

- Cybersecurity and data backup best practices
  The Organization’s data is critically important. There are millions of ways data can be compromised. It is vitally important that all employees have proper knowledge on what is safe to click on and what is not. It is equally important that a proper data backup solution is in place in the event an Organization’s information is targeted by malware or a phishing attack. An Organization’s vital information is always a moment away from being compromised. Encouraging and educating employees to pay attention to what they click on and what they do is the first step in keeping information safe.

  Having a proper data backup solution in place can mean the difference between an organization surviving a cyber-attack or going under. Every organization should know the answer to two questions when looking at data backup solutions.

  1. How long can my organization survive a network outage?
     Many organizations assume that they are properly backing up their network but how often are those backups tested? Internally managed backups are more susceptible to lack of testing. Management often believes they have successful backups but in the moment of a disaster, they find out that their last successful backup was months ago. Test backups often to make sure files can be recovered when needed.
2. Does our organization understand the difference between a backup and disaster recovery? Management often assumes that simply backing up files is “good enough”. Backing up files is something all organizations should do. However, it’s important to remember that restoring files and emails is one thing, but recovering and restoring all company data in the event of a disaster is another.

- Leases
  There is a new Accounting Standards Update which will significantly change accounting for leases by both lessors and lessees. The new guidance, requires the right of use model in accounting for all leases, with limited exceptions. As a result, lessees will be required to recognize assets and liabilities arising from operating leases. Lessees will recognize interest expense on the liability and amortization of the right-to-use asset in their results of operations. Capital lease accounting will also change due to changes in guidance related to options and contingent rentals. Rules may be simplified for leases with terms of twelve months or less but will be applied to all existing leases upon adoption. The guidance could have implications, not only for the Organization’s financial statements, but also for any applicable debt covenants. The standard that will be applicable for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020. However, if comparative financial statements are presented, all years shown will need to follow the same guidance. Therefore, for comparative financial statements, this new standard may need to be run side by side with the existing standard for the year ending December 31, 2019.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require that the auditor accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those the auditor believes to be trivial. The adjustments identified during the audit have been communicated to management and management has posted all adjustments.

There were no uncorrected misstatements that were more than trivial.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a financial accounting, reporting or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditors’ report. We had no disagreements with management during the audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated as of the date of the audit report.

Management’s Consultations with Other Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a “second opinion” on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Organization’s financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor’s opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.
Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Organization’s auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

We discussed these matters with various personnel in the Organization during the audit and have already met with management. We would also be pleased to meet with you to discuss these matters at your convenience.

These communications are intended solely for the information and use of management, the Diocesan Council, and others within the Organization, and are not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than those specified parties.

The Diocese of Eastern Michigan embraces all that part of the Lower Peninsula of the State of Michigan lying within Cheboygan, Presque Isle, Otsego, Montmorency, Alpena, Crawford, Oscoda, Alcona, Roscommon, Ogemaw, Iosco, Gladwin, Arenac, Midland, Bay, Huron, Gratiot, Saginaw, Tuscola, Sanilac, Clinton (that portion north of Price Road), Shiawassee, Genesee, Lapeer, St. Clair, and Oakland (that portion within Holly Township) counties.

ARTICLE II
Loyalty

As a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the Diocese of Eastern Michigan accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, and acknowledges their authority.

ARTICLE III
The Bishop

A. The Bishop, an apostle of Jesus Christ, is the chief priest and pastor of this Diocese; in the exercise of this ministry the Bishop is its Ecclesiastical Authority. In case of the Bishop's absence or disability the Bishop may temporarily designate the Bishop Coadjutor as the Ecclesiastical Authority. If no Bishop is qualified and able to act, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority.

B. Whenever the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese make provision for action by the Bishop, such action, except where otherwise specifically provided, shall be taken by the Ecclesiastical Authority as defined above.

C. The Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese shall be elected in an Annual Convention or in a Special Convention called for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given at least sixty (60) days prior to such Convention. A two-thirds vote of those present and eligible to vote shall be required for election.

ARTICLE IV
The Convention

A. There shall be an Annual Convention of this Diocese as provided by Canon.

1. The Convention shall be composed of the following members with voice and vote: The Bishop, at least one lay delegate from each of the congregations in union with the Convention, and alldeacons, presbyters, and other bishops canonically and actually resident within the Diocese. Any other baptized members of this Diocese who are present shall have voice but no vote.

   a. The mode of determining the number of lay delegates, of electing lay delegates, and of admitting congregations into union with the Convention shall be prescribed by Canon.

   b. The mode of identifying and determining those deacons, presbyters, and other bishops... shall be prescribed by Canon.

c. Provision in the Canons may be made for the denial of vote at a Convention of which they may be members to lay delegates and clergy on the basis of failure to submit the Annual Parochial Report required in Title I, Canon 11, Section 2 (Of Parish and other Congregation Registers and Parochial Reports) of the Canons of this Diocese.

2. In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the lay delegates and clergy shall deliberate and vote in one body. A majority of those voting shall be required to approve any matter before the Convention, except proposals to amend the Constitution and Canons and to elect a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor.

3. The President of the Convention shall be the Bishop, or in the Bishop's absence the Bishop Coadjutor, or in the absence of both the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if any, the President of the Standing Committee. In the absence of all the foregoing the senior presbyter (by length of time in canonical residence in this Diocese) present shall call Convention to order, and the Convention shall elect a President pro tempore.

4. At each Annual Convention a Secretary shall be chosen, and shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until a successor be chosen. The Secretary shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by Convention and by Canon. If a vacancy occurs it may be filled by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee.

B. Special Conventions may be called:
   1. by the Bishop or the Standing Committee, or
   2. by the Standing Committee, if a petition to convene a Special Convention, signed by a majority of each of the governing boards (Vestry or Committee) of ten different congregations in union with the Convention of this Diocese, and also fifteen presbyters canonically and actually resident in this Diocese, is presented to the Standing Committee.

The convener shall notify the Secretary of the Convention specifying the purpose, date, time and place of the proposed Special Convention. The Secretary of the Convention shall give notice to the lay delegates and clergy of the Special Convention in a manner as provided by Canon. The business at such Special Convention shall be limited to the matters set forth in that notice.

C. Every Convention shall include such services of worship as shall be approved by the Bishop, including at least one celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

ARTICLE V
Convocations

Regions of the Diocese to be known as Convocations shall be created as prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE VI
Canons

Canons, not in conflict with this Constitution, may be adopted by the Convention to implement the provisions of this Constitution and to prescribe the operation of this Diocese. Such proposed Canons or amendments thereto may be adopted, which shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote at such Convention.
ARTICLE VII

Amendments

A. Any proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the Convention at which it is to be considered. It shall then be filed by the Secretary of the Convention with any committee as determined by Canon, which committee shall report on the proposed amendment, with or without a recommendation, to the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty (60) days before the date of the Convention.

B. The Secretary shall mail copies of the proposed amendment, including any such report, to the lay delegates and clergy of the Convention at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such Convention, and shall report the same to the Convention.

C. When such proposed amendment is before the Convention for first consideration, changes may be made during the debate and before the final vote.

D. If such proposed amendment, with any changes made during the debate, is approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote, it shall lie over to the next Annual Convention for final approval or rejection.

E. When such a proposed amendment comes before the next Annual Convention for final approval, its reading shall be the first order of business. If the amendment is adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote, such amendment shall be effective immediately and shall govern all matters coming before the same Convention and thereafter.
