OF THE DIOCESE OF EASTERN MICHIGAN

ARTICLE I

The Diocese of Eastern Michigan embraces all that part of the Lower Peninsula of the State of Michigan lying within Cheboygan, Presque Isle, Otsego, Montmorency, Alpena, Crawford, Oscoda, Alcona, Roscommon, Ogemaw, Iosco, Gladwin, Arenac, Midland, Bay, Huron, Gratiot, Saginaw, Tuscola, Sanilac, Clinton (that portion north of Price Road), Shiawassee, Genesee, Lapeer, St. Clair, and Oakland (that portion within Holly Township) counties.

ARTICLE II Loyalty

As a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, the Diocese of Eastern Michigan accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, and acknowledges their authority.

ARTICLE III
The Bishop

A. The Bishop, an apostle of Jesus Christ, is the chief priest and pastor of this Diocese; in the exercise of this ministry the Bishop is its Ecclesiastical Authority. In case of the Bishop's absence or disability the Bishop may temporarily designate the Bishop Coadjutor as the Ecclesiastical Authority. If no Bishop is qualified and able to act, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority.

B. Whenever the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese make provision for action by the Bishop, such action, except where otherwise specifically provided, shall be taken by the Ecclesiastical Authority as defined above.

C. The Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of this Diocese shall be elected in an Annual Convention or in a Special Convention called for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given at least sixty (60) days prior to such Convention. A two-thirds vote of those present and eligible to vote shall be required for election.

ARTICLE IV
The Convention

A. There shall be an Annual Convention of this Diocese as provided by Canon.

1. The Convention shall be composed of the following members with voice and vote: The Bishop, at least one lay delegate from each of the congregations in union with the Convention, and all deacons, presbyters, and other bishops canonically and actually resident within the Diocese. Any other baptized members of this Diocese who are present shall have voice but no vote.
 - a. The mode of determining the number of lay delegates, of electing lay delegates, and of admitting congregations into union with the Convention shall be prescribed by Canon.
 - b. The mode of identifying and determining those deacons, presbyters, and other bishops shall be prescribed by Canon.
 - c. Provision in the Canons may be made for the denial of vote at a Convention of which they may be members to lay delegates and clergy on the basis of failure to submit the Annual Parochial Report required in Title I, Canon 11, Section 2 (Of Parish and other Congregation Registers and Parochial Reports) of the Canons of this Diocese.
2. In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the lay delegates and clergy shall deliberate and vote in one body. A majority of those voting shall be required to approve any matter before the Convention, except proposals to amend the Constitution and Canons and to elect a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor.

3. The President of the Convention shall be the Bishop, or in the Bishop's absence the Bishop Coadjutor, or in the absence of both the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if any, the President of the Standing Committee. In the absence of all the foregoing the senior presbyter (by length of time in canonical residence in this Diocese) present shall call Convention to order, and the Convention shall elect a President pro tempore.

4. At each Annual Convention a Secretary shall be chosen, and shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until a successor be chosen. The Secretary shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by Convention and by Canon. If a vacancy occurs it may be filled by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee.

B. Special Conventions may be called:

1. by the Bishop or the Standing Committee, or
2. by the Standing Committee, if a petition to convene a Special Convention, signed by a majority of each of the governing boards (Vestry or Committee) of ten different congregations in union with the Convention of this Diocese, and also fifteen presbyters canonically and actually resident in this Diocese, is presented to the Standing Committee.

The convener shall notify the Secretary of the Convention specifying the purpose, date, time and place of the proposed Special Convention. The Secretary of the Convention shall give notice to the lay delegates and clergy of the Special Convention in a manner as provided by Canon. The business at such Special Convention shall be limited to the matters set forth in that notice.

C. Every Convention shall include such services of worship as shall be approved by the Bishop, including at least one celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

ARTICLE V Convocations

Regions of the Diocese to be known as Convocations shall be created as prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE VI Canons

Canons, not in conflict with this Constitution, may be adopted by the Convention to implement the provisions of this Constitution and to prescribe the operation of this Diocese. Such proposed Canons or amendments thereto may be adopted, which shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote at such Convention.

ARTICLE VII Amendments

A. Any proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the Convention at which it is to be considered. It shall then be filed by the Secretary of the Convention with any committee as determined by Canon, which committee shall report on the proposed amendment, with or without a recommendation, to the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty (60) days before the date of the Convention.

B. The Secretary shall mail copies of the proposed amendment, including any such report, to the lay delegates and clergy of the Convention at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such Convention, and shall report the same to the Convention.

C. When such proposed amendment is before the Convention for first consideration, changes may be made during the debate and before the final vote.

D. If such proposed amendment, with any changes made during the debate, is approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote, it shall lie over to the next Annual Convention for final approval or rejection.

E. When such a proposed amendment comes before the next Annual Convention for final approval, its reading shall be the first order of business. If the amendment is adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present and eligible to vote, such amendment shall be effective immediately and shall govern all matters coming before the same Convention and thereafter.

THE CANONS OF THE DIOCESE OF EASTERN MICHIGAN

TITLE I: ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

CANON 1 Of Lay Delegates

Sec. 1. Each congregation in union with the Convention is entitled to a maximum of four (4) lay delegates to the Convention, and to a corresponding number of alternate delegates. Immediately upon the admission of a congregation into union with the Convention its delegates shall be entitled to vote.

Sec. 2. Each lay delegate has one (1) vote in the Convention.

Sec. 3. Each lay delegate and alternate must be an adult (sixteen years of age or older) communicant in good standing (as defined by Title I, Canon 17, Sec. 2 and 3 (Of Regulations Respecting the Laity) of the Canons of the General Convention) in the congregation which they represent. No person under ecclesiastical censure is eligible to be a lay delegate or alternate to the Convention.

Sec. 4. The lay delegates and alternates are to be elected by a simple majority of the members present at the Annual Meeting of the congregation to serve from the time of election. The Clerk of the Vestry shall send a Congregational Data Form containing the names and addresses of the newly elected lay delegates and alternates to the Secretary of the Convention at the Diocesan Center on or before March 1 each year. If, at the time of the Annual or any Special Convention, a congregation has fewer than four (4) duly elected Delegates and Alternates willing to serve, the Vestry of that congregation may elect a sufficient number of qualified persons to so serve. The Clerk of the Vestry shall provide a list of such persons to the Secretary of the Convention before such persons may be recognized as Delegates and/or Alternates.

Sec. 5. Sec. 5. The Ecclesiastical Authority shall appoint ten youth delegates and sufficient alternates upon recommendations from the Director of Children, Youth, and Young Adult Formation. Youth delegates must be communicants in good standing with a congregation in the Diocese and must be high school age. Youth delegates are lay delegates as defined in these canons and have voice and vote.

Sec. 6. The lay delegates of any congregation which has failed to file the annual report required by Title I, Canon 12, Sec. 2 on or before March 1 of any year shall lose their vote at the next Annual Convention and any intervening Special Conventions, except as determined by the Bishop with the consent of the Convention.

CANON 2 Of a List of the Clergy

Sec. 1. On or before the day of the meeting of the Diocesan Convention the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, the President of the Standing Committee shall cause to be prepared a List of the Clergy, consisting of all bishops, priests and deacons, canonically and actually resident in the Diocese, annexing to the names of the deacons the name of the congregation, other community of faith, or non-parochial ministry to which the deacon is assigned as in Title III, Canon 7, Section 4 (Of the Life and Work of Deacons) of the Canons of the General Convention, and to the names of priests the name of the congregation, chaplaincy or other setting (non-parochial) to which the priest is appointed as in Title III, Canon 9, Section 3 (Of the Life and Work of Priests) of the Canons of the General Convention; but no clergy while under ecclesiastical discipline shall have a place in such list. The list thus made shall be laid before the Convention immediately after it shall have been called to order. It shall also be appended to the Journal, and sent to the Secretary of the General Convention. For the purposes of interpreting the phrase "actually resident in the Diocese," those clergy whose respective congregations or other places of assignment or appointment noted above are located within the Diocese shall be deemed to be actually resident, the location of their domiciles notwithstanding; for all other clergy the location of their domicile shall so determine.

Sec. 2. If the right of any of the clergy to a seat in the Convention is disputed, the Convention shall determine whether his or her name should be inserted or deleted in the list aforesaid according to the provisions of the Constitution.

Sec. 3. Any of the clergy who shall have failed to submit the annual report required by Title I, Canon 12, Sec. 2 by March 1 of any year, shall lose their vote at the next Annual Convention and any intervening Special Conventions, except as determined by the Bishop with the consent of the Convention.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of all clergy having a vote in the Convention to attend every meeting thereof unless excused by the Bishop.

Sec. 5. Reference in the Canons of this Diocese to ordained persons or to clergy is intended to include bishops, presbyters, and deacons without any distinction or differentiation, except where reference to one or more of those orders is specifically made.

CANON 3 Of the Annual and Special Conventions

Sec. 1. The Diocese will hold an Annual Convention in accordance with Article IV of the Constitution. The date, time, and place shall be determined by the previous Convention; but if the date, time, and place shall not have been so appointed, it shall be determined by the Bishop. The Bishop or Standing Committee calling a Special Convention shall give the Secretary of the Convention reasonable notice as to the proposed date, time, place, and purpose of such Special Convention.

Conventions shall be held in various locations throughout the Diocese.

Sec. 2. The Secretary of the Convention shall give written notice of the date, time, and place of any Convention, annual or special.

(c) RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE, consisting of two (2) persons, one (1) ordained person and one (1) lay person, responsible for presenting to Convention those resolutions offered to the Convention for consideration.

Sec. 6. Resolutions will be submitted to the Convention through the Resolutions Committee in the following manner: Resolutions may originate in the Diocesan Council, in the Standing Committee or in a petition from at least four (4) lay delegates to the Convention and four (4) ordained persons canonically and actually resident in the Diocese.

(a) All proposed resolutions must be received by the Resolutions Committee no later than sixty (60) days before the date of the Convention.

(b) For each proposed resolution, the Resolutions Committee will determine that the resolution complies with this Section as to origination and timeliness, and ensure that it is in the proper form and style (not altering its intent nor content, nor combining it with other resolutions), and present it to the Convention for action.

(c) The Resolutions Committee shall submit its report to the Secretary of the Convention at least thirty-five (35) days before the Convention. The Secretary of the Convention shall forward this report to the lay delegates and clergy at least thirty (30) days before the Convention.

(d) The Resolutions Committee shall submit a written report to the Convention of the title of proposed resolutions not received in a timely fashion according to this Section.

Sec. 7. An Annual Convention from time to time may adopt, alter, or delete permanent rules of order not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese for itself and subsequent Annual and Special Conventions. Where not otherwise provided, the rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order – Revised shall govern the Convention in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese or the rules of order of the Convention.

CANON 4 Of the Secretary of the Convention

Sec. 1 There shall be a Secretary of Convention, elected upon nomination by the Bishop at the opening of the Convention. An Assistant Secretary may be appointed but need not be confirmed by the Convention.

Sec. 2 The Secretary shall be responsible for the keeping of an accurate record of the Convention actions, and shall transmit a copy of the Journal of every Convention to the Clerk of the Vestry of every congregation in union with the Convention, each of the clergy entitled to vote in the Convention, the Chancellor, and two copies to the Secretary of the General Convention. The Secretary shall also perform such duties as are prescribed by the canons of this diocese.

Sec. 3. The expenses incurred by the Secretary in the performance of official duties shall be paid out of Diocesan funds.

Sec. 4. The Secretary shall notify, in writing, the members of all committees named as a result of any action of the Convention, within fourteen (14) days of their appointment.

CANON 5 Of the Clerk of Nominations of the Convention

Sec. 1. A Clerk, lay or ordained, shall be appointed by the Bishop at each Annual Convention to serve a term of one year, commencing with the close of Convention and ending at the close of the next Annual Convention.

Sec. 2. The Secretary of Convention shall notify the Clerk no more than thirty (30) days after an Annual Convention of those positions and offices due to be filled by election or appointment at the next Annual Convention. The Secretary of Convention also shall notify the Clerk in a timely manner of any changes to the positions and offices due to be filled by election or appointment.

Sec. 3. The Clerk of Nominations of the Convention shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the Bishop, three (3) lay persons and (3) clergy to serve as a Discernment Committee. The Committee will provide for and manage the procedure of elections at Conventions of the Diocese and report on the results of the same in a manner consistent with these Canons and as approved by the Convention or the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the names of all persons nominated shall appear on each ballot, unless the President of the Convention is advised by the nominee or the nominee's authorized representative that the nominee desires to withdraw his or her name from the list of nominees on the ballot, in which case that nominee's name shall be withdrawn on subsequent ballots.

Sec. 3. In all other elections of the Convention the first ballot for an election shall contain the name of all persons as nominated by the appropriate Committee. Any person(s) receiving a majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected.

Sec. 4. Should fewer than the necessary number of persons to fill the positions of an office being elected receive a majority of the votes cast in the first ballot, a second ballot shall be prepared. The names of the remaining unelected nominees receiving the most votes shall, in order of most votes received, be placed on the second ballot in sufficient number to provide only twice the number of names as positions to be elected. Any person(s) receiving a majority of the votes cast in the second ballot shall be declared elected. Should fewer than the necessary number of persons to fill the positions of an office being elected be elected on the second ballot, a third ballot shall be prepared and taken as provided in this Section for the second ballot.

Sec. 5. Should an election by a majority vote be inconclusive after a third ballot, a deadlock shall be declared. Any persons elected on the first, second, and third ballots shall be declared elected, and the remaining unfilled positions shall be filled as provided for the filling of vacancies in the Canon governing that office. Should that vacancy be required to be filled by election at an Annual Convention of the Diocese, that vacancy shall hold over and the next subsequent Annual Convention or Council meeting shall fill that vacancy by election; the person(s) then elected shall serve the unexpired remainder of the original term.
