THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF THE GREAT LAKES

The Diocese of the Great Lakes has been one of our strongest consensus options and one of the first names that was suggested to the Building Bridges Steering Committee which gained significant traction. We love our lakes, and the basin of Lakes Huron and Michigan wraps around us, hydrologically functioning as one large lake. An interesting geographical reality about our congregational distribution is that nearly half of our congregations are clustered within thirty minutes of our 3,224 miles of shoreline on Lakes Michigan and Huron, and the vast majority are an hour or less from that shoreline.

Waters that flow through our communities drain into Lakes Huron and Michigan before eventually making their way down the St. Clair River, Lake St. Clair, the Detroit River, Lakes Erie and Ontario, and then onward to the St. Lawrence Seaway and eventually, the Atlantic Ocean. In this way, what happens in our communities impacts not just our community, but the whole church and the whole world with which we are connected. Just as we know our God as the one in whom we live and move and have our being, we live and move and have our being in the waters of the Great Lakes. We are people of the Great Lakes.

Canon 1.10.6 (the Episcopal Church's canon describing juncture) requires that the Ecclesiastical Authorities and the Standing Committees (and our Standing Committees currently serve in both those capacities) submit to their conventions a resolution commending the Agreement of Union. The vote on this resolution functions as the vote on juncture to become a new diocese.

ABOUT THE DRAFT CONSTITUTION & CANONS

The draft Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of the Great Lakes is part of the Agreement of Union submitted to the Special Convention of the Episcopal Dioceses of Eastern and Western Michigan. If juncture is approved, the Agreement of Union will be submitted to the 81st General Convention of The Episcopal Church for ratification this summer.

This Constitution and Canons remain a working draft and would not be implemented until adoption at the First Convention of the new diocese in October 2024. As part of preparation for October's convention, there would be opportunities for further input and revision on this document. Following their submission to the First Convention of the new diocese, the constitution and canons can be amended prior to adoption and at future conventions.

In the process of drafting these canons, the Governance and Canons Sub-Team of the Building Bridges Steering Committee studied Eastern and Western Michigan's current canons and talked to leaders within both dioceses regarding how current structures were working well and where they needed improvement. We also reached beyond our own dioceses and studied the canons of other dioceses to glean best practices. We looked at the canons of dioceses in processes like ours and those of other healthy, vibrant dioceses whose size and make-up resemble the diocese we would become if juncture is approved.

In November 2023, Building Bridges hosted a leadership day for the Standing Committees, Diocesan Councils, and diocesan staff to receive feedback on draft financial and canonical recommendations. A revised version of those recommendations were distributed throughout the dioceses and over two hundred and fifty lay persons and clergy participated in January feedback sessions.

Every piece of feedback received was considered by a sub-team of Building Bridges. Adjustments, additions, clarifications and other changes were made in every section of the Constitution and Canons included the Agreement of Union based on this feedback from the wider dioceses and our leadership.

In their movement toward "reunification" (the canonical term for dioceses returning back together; "juncture" is the term for dioceses that had not previously been one), the committee leading the Episcopal Trialogue in Wisconsin said in a statement, "If our conventions vote this Spring to reunify, our new diocese will allow us to free up money and human capacity so that we have the space to experiment with new ways of doing ministry, learn from our successes and failures, and try again. The proposal to reunify gives us a place to begin experimenting and innovating—not a final goal or ideal vision of our new diocese."

It is in that spirit that we present this draft of the Constitution and Canons for the Episcopal Diocese of the Great Lakes. They are a framework from which we can begin as a new diocese, not a final goal nor an ideal vision. While no one document can perfectly describe the "ideal" diocese, we believe we can look forward to the ways in which we can start together, heal together, and grow from this place of beginning again, together. We expect that these canons will be improved and adapted as we learn more fully what is needed to ensure that Episcopal identity, room for innovation, and connections and accountabilities to one another and the larger church are woven deeply into our common life and ministries as the Episcopal Diocese of the Great Lakes.

This document is a working draft of the Constitution and Canons for the Episcopal Diocese of the Great Lakes. These canons will be offered for adoption at the first Convention of the new Diocese and will be perfected before then.

Conditions for At Risk Status. If the conditions set forth above shall persist for more than one year, or if conditions warrant immediate action, the Bishop, with advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may declare the Congregation to be a Congregation at Risk and establish a Restoration Plan, which may require the application of one or more of the following measures to restore health to the Congregation:

- i. Appointment, by the Bishop, of three (3) to five (5) persons, some or all of whom may be adult communicants of the Congregation, to govern the affairs of the Congregation as the Vestry, replacing the current Vestry, notwithstanding any other provisions for such governance or the election of a Vestry in the Canons of this Diocese;

Sec. 1. Whenever any congregation shall choose to dissolve or be determined by the Bishop and Diocesan Council to be no longer viable after steps have been taken to restore congregational health, the Convention may vote to remove it from union with the Diocese by a vote at Convention, but without prejudice to a subsequent application for readmission.

A person serving as an Advisor shall hold no other appointed or elected position provided for under this Title and shall not include persons serving as Chancellors, Vice-Chancellors, or Assistant Chancellors of this Diocese, or any person likely to be called as a witness in the proceeding. An Advisor shall be available for purposes of support, assistance, consultation, and advice regarding the process provided in this Title and the pertinent rights, responsibilities, consequences, and alternatives.
- f. Conciliator. The Bishop shall appoint a Conciliator to assist in reconciling the parties and issues involved. The Conciliator shall be skilled in dispute resolution and without conflict of interest in the matter.

Sec. 3. Of Inter-diocesan Agreements

This Diocese may agree with one or more of the Dioceses to develop and share resources necessary to implement this Canon, including all boards, panels, personnel, and administrative and financial support for proceedings under this Canon. With the advice and consent of the Bishop, such agreement may be established by the Diocesan Council, subject to such changes to this Canon as may be necessary to implement such an agreement fully.

Canon 10: The General Fund

Sec. 1. Purpose

The General Fund shall include all unrestricted funds of the Diocese and shall be used for the share of the Diocese in the General Church Program of The Episcopal Church as adopted by the General Convention, support of Communities of Faith and Commissions, the stipend and expenses of the Bishop, and the salaries and expenses of the Diocese.

Sec.2. Sources, Receipts, and Disbursements

The General Fund shall be derived from income from designated and unrestricted endowment and trust funds and from the apportionments of each congregation. All monies due or accruing to the Fund shall be paid to the Treasurer, who shall pay no monies therefrom which have not been provided for by the Budget adopted at the annual Convention, unless authorized to do so by the Diocesan Council, or by the Bishop for expenditures under $1,000.

Canon 11: The Budget

Sec. 1. Apportionment

The Budget of the Diocese, including its obligation to The Episcopal Church and Province V, shall be funded, in part, by an annual apportionment of each Congregation and Seasonal Chapel. The apportionment shall be a percentage, not to exceed 14%, of each Congregation's and Seasonal Chapel's Net Operating Income. A Congregation's Net Operating Income shall be the average Net Operating Income appearing on the last three Parochial Reports. The proposed apportionment set by the Diocesan Council may be a tiered flat rate for each Congregation and Seasonal Chapel or a graduated rate determined by the Net Operating Income of each Congregation and Seasonal Chapel. The proposed apportionment rate for a given year will be attached to the proposed budget of the Diocese and submitted to Convention for approval. The apportionment rate of a congregation shall not increase more than 2% from one year to the next.

Sec. 2. Budget

The balanced Budget with the proposed apportionment percentage shall be adopted by the Diocesan Council and submitted to the Diocesan Convention for approval not less than 30 days before the Diocesan Convention. Any proposed amendments to the Budget during the Diocesan Convention must be balanced. This means any increase or decrease in a line must be offset by an equal increase or decrease.

Sec. 3. Notification of Apportionment

The Diocesan Office will promptly inform each Congregation and Seasonal Chapel of its apportionment. Each Congregation and Seasonal Chapel will have a maximum of 45 days to respond in writing. If a Congregation or Seasonal Chapel believes itself unable to meet the apportionment, it must indicate in writing why that is so. By a majority vote, the Council shall have the authority to waive a portion of the apportionment for any given year.

Sec. 4. Apportionment Review Committee

The Apportionment Review Committee shall be a sub-committee of the Diocesan Council charged with working with Congregations and Seasonal Chapels that are unable to meet their apportionment.

- a. The committee members shall be appointed by the Bishop and approved by the Diocesan Council.
- b. Upon notice by a Congregation or Seasonal Chapel that they cannot meet their apportionment, the Committee will work with the Rector, Vestry, or Bishop's Committee to determine an appropriate amount of support for the Diocese and a plan to meet the apportionment in a set timeline. The Committee will then recommend waiving a portion of the apportionment for that year to the Executive Council.
- c. If a Congregation or Seasonal Chapel will not work in good faith with the Apportionment Review Committee and the supportive groups within the Diocese to strengthen the Congregation or Seasonal Chapel and meet the apportionment goal, the Bishop and the Standing Committee will have the option of prescribing a course of action for the health of the Congregation or Seasonal Chapel, pursuant to the Congregational Health Canon

Sec. 5. Stewardship

In accordance with the Canons of the General Convention, each congregation shall institute a stewardship education program (including the biblical history and theology of tithing and our church's teaching on giving) designed to emphasize and ensure that stewardship is a continuing mission embracing all aspects of the Church's life.

Sec. 6. The Bishop, or the Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church, may directly appeal to the congregations and members of the Diocese for response to emergency needs in extreme or unusual circumstances.

Sec. 7. Episcopal Church Assessment

The Diocesan Council shall:

- a. Advise the Episcopal Church Executive Council of the amount the Diocese intends to pay towards the Episcopal Church Program that year; and
- b. Have the authority during the year to expend all funds covered by the budget and modify the budget approved by the Annual Convention in any manner necessary to balance expenditures with anticipated resources.

TITLE IV: The Diocese as Member of The Episcopal Church

Canon 1: Deputies To General Convention and Provincial Synod Representatives

Sec. 1. Election Of Deputies And Alternates To General Convention

The annual Convention shall elect by ballot, not later than the next year preceding any General Convention, eight deputies to the General Convention, four members of the clergy, and four adult lay communicants in good standing together with an equal number of alternate deputies having similar qualifications. The four members of the clergy and four adult lay communicants in good standing, first receiving a simple majority of the votes cast, shall be declared elected deputies. The four members of the clergy and laity receiving the highest number of votes in the final election for deputies shall be declared alternate deputies in the order of votes received.

Sec. 2. Deputies to the Provincial Synod

- a. The Convention shall elect by ballot Deputies to represent the Diocese in the Provincial Synod, as provided for in the ordinances of the Province.
- b. If the Convention fails to elect such Deputies, those last previously chosen shall serve until their successors have been elected. Should a Deputy no longer wish to continue in such service, the Ecclesiastical Authority may appoint a replacement with the consent of the Standing Committee.

TITLE V: General Provisions

Canon 1: Of Additions and Amendments to the Canons

Sec. 1. All proposed amendments or additions to the Canons shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least sixty days before the Convention at which they are to be considered.

- a. The Secretary of the Convention shall then file them with any committee as determined by Canon, which committee, if any, shall report on the proposed amendments, with or without recommendation, to the Secretary of the Convention at least 30 days before the date of the Convention.
- b. The Secretary shall submit copies of the proposed amendments or additions, including any such report, to the lay delegates and clergy of the Convention at least thirty days before the date of such Convention and shall report the same to the Convention.
- c. The Convention shall consider no amendment or addition to the Canons unless so reported to it by the Secretary.

Sec. 2. When any proposed amendment or addition is before the Convention for consideration, changes may be made by a majority vote during the debate and before the final vote. An amendment or addition to the Canons shall be finally adopted and approved by two-thirds of the members present.

Sec. 3. New canons, deletions of whole canons, and additions to, amendments of, and deletions from existing canons, unless otherwise expressly ordered, shall take effect on the first day following the adjournment of the Convention at which they were enacted or made.

Canon 2: Construction

These Canons, and this Diocese and its organizations, are subject to the Constitution and Statutes of the United States of America, the Constitution, and Statutes of the State of Michigan, and the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention of The Episcopal Church in the United States, as the same may, from time to time, be amended or changed, and these Canons should be construed as being consistent therewith; anything herein to the contrary Notwithstanding.

Sec. 1. The table of contents, index, cross-reference tables, catch line headings, and comments to the extent published with these Canons are not part of the text of the Canons and are not to be used in the construction of these Canons.

Sec. 2. Should any court of competent jurisdiction, whether civil or ecclesiastical, determine that any provision of these Canons is contrary to any governing law, such provision shall be null, void, and of no effect from such point forward, but such determination shall have no effect on any remaining Canon. Each Canon is severable from the remainder and shall continue in force until repealed or amended.

Canon 3: Validity of Electronic Meetings

Any meeting of a Diocesan Body, or Body of a Community of Faith, may be held electronically as long as each member has the ability to hear and be heard by all other members. Leadership of Diocesan Committees or the Committees of Communities of Faith may make limited use of email polling for questions that need to be addressed before the next meeting of the committee. Email polling must allow for all members to view the votes and comments of all other members. Decisions made by email polling must be ratified at the next official meeting of the committee.

Canon 4: Parliamentary Authority

Sec. 1. The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the parliamentary authority at all meetings of the Diocese and any of its Congregations and organizations unless they are inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese or the rules of order of the Convention.

Sec. 2. An Annual Convention, from time to time, may adopt, alter, or delete permanent rules of order not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese for itself and subsequent Annual and Special Conventions.

Sec. 3. At any meeting of the Diocese and any of its Congregations and organizations, a two-thirds majority of those present and entitled to vote, provided that a quorum has been determined to be present, may vote to suspend or modify the Rules of Order for that meeting only; and, provided that the suspension of the Rules shall not interfere with the ability of the meeting to adjourn.

Canon 5: Presumption Against Conflict of Interest

No contract of the Diocese, or any Congregation or constituent organization of the Diocese made with any member of the Diocese or any Congregation or constituent organization of the Diocese, or with a partnership or other group or association of which any such member shall be a member or with any corporation of which such member may be a member or director and no contract between this Diocesan corporation and any other corporation having common directors shall be invalid because of such facts alone.

Canon 6: Representation of Position of Diocese

No public statement respecting a position on any issue attributed to the Diocese, any Congregation in the Diocese, or any organization of the Diocese may be made unless in full compliance with the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese, and the prior approval of the Bishop. The Bishop has the authority to issue blanket approvals or to delegate this power by written authorization.

TITLE VI - Transitional Canons

Canon 1: Leadership Body Membership

Sec 1. Standing Committee and Diocesan Council

The 2024 Convention shall elect one-third of the membership of the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council, ensuring the proper allocation of clergy and lay persons as new members of the body. The 2024 Convention shall also elect two-thirds of the membership of the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council from the existing membership of that body for the Dioceses of Eastern and Western Michigan, assigning each to a term of two or one year. Each leadership body shall determine the members nominated for election at the 2024 Convention, assuring the proper allocation of clergy and laypersons and even ensuring division between members from the previous dioceses. Members serving on the either body of the previous dioceses who are not nominated for election at the 2024 Convention shall be eligible for nomination for any newly elected offices.

Sec 2. Commision on Ministry

The members of the Commission on Ministry for the Dioceses of Western Michigan and Eastern Michigan shall constitute the Commission on Ministry for the Diocese of the Great Lakes until the Annual Convention held in 2025 notwithstanding the Canons herein on the Commission on Ministry. Sixty days prior to the 2025 Annual Convention, the Commission shall report to the Eccestical Authority suggesting the continued membership of the Commission.

Canon 2: Apportionment

The Diocesan apportionments shall be calculated using the original formula of each diocese. The lesser amount of either that calculation or the apportionment amount calculated for 2024 shall be applied.

DETERMINING A BISHOP DIOCESAN

The Standing Committee of the Episcopal Diocese of the Great Lakes will establish a process for conversation, learning, and discernment regarding the ministry of the episcopate, including our local recent and historic experience with this office and the mission and vision of this new diocese. These processes will be structured to flow into the search and election of a new bishop diocesan with the expectation that the election will take place no later than 2026.

The Dioceses of Eastern and Western Michigan are currently served by the Joint Standing Committee as ecclesiastical authority and an assisting bishop and neighboring bishops who are providing sacramental and pastoral support. The ongoing process of transition and the actual timeline for the election of a new bishop diocesan will be established and overseen by the Standing Committee.

Building Bridges – Stewardship of Resources

2025 Draft Transitional Budget & 2026 Draft Model Budget

The current budgets of the Episcopal Dioceses of Eastern and Western Michigan are large and complex documents, through which we organize our resources for mission and ministry according to our sense of God's call. In preparing this summary of a possible Transition Budget for 2025, along with a Model Budget of a joined and fully staffed diocese, we have analyzed and combined over 500 budget lines. While this report does not give us all of the answers as to what the future life of a joined diocese would look like (that is up to our diocesan leaders under the prayerful guiding of the Holy Spirit), it does give us a sense of some of the questions we will be asking as we look to the future we believe God has for us and the resources we have available for that work to be done well.

To be clear about the process, neither of these budgets are finalized, nor have they been approved by the diocesan council who exercise the fiduciary responsibility of each diocese. They are offered, instead, to give us a picture of what might be and to help us see what decisions would lie in front of us if juncture is approved. We needed to create two budgets for this work: one as a possible transition budget for the first year of the new diocese in 2025 and a second to confirm that there is a model which could be balanced for that second year of 2026 when we are fully staffed with a diocesan bishop.

- Transition Budget – If juncture is approved at the March Special Convention, then the finance committees and diocesan councils of each diocese would in collaboration use the the Transition Budget—along with your feedback—as a basis to build a budget for 2025 that could be presented to the First Convention of the new diocese (fall of 2024).
- Model Budget – This model won't reach a final version until the fall of 2025. It will undergo several revisions as we simplify our systems and adapt staffing. But it could be used as the starting point for creating the 2026 budget to be presented to the Second Convention of the new diocese. It shows us where everything currently stands in our shared expenses and looks at various models for apportionment that would be required if no changes are made to current structures.

The current model, as you will see, is not terribly sustainable without a significant increase in revenue across all dioceses or decrease in overall expenditures. This is actually one of the reasons why we are recommending juncture; the current budgets in both dioceses are simply not sustainable on their own. We believe that together, combined, we not only have “more” but can steward those resources and our communities of faith better than we are able separately. In Eastern Michigan, the model of a lean diocese resulted in significant struggle for smaller churches and budget-modeling that cannot balance without increasing reliance on endowments. In Western Michigan, the model of three full-time canon missionaries and a diocesan bishop was not sustainable without evolving that model as originally intended. It remained financially sustainable in this form only because of the transitions in the episcopate, resulting in cost savings. We have benefited from having canon missionaries in place through those upheavals and have heard from many, especially smaller congregations, regarding the value of the ministry provided through those regional staff members. However, as our structures evolve and our financial picture becomes more clear we need to ask how best to provide those and other needed ministries while remaining good stewards of our finances.

Next steps will involve us seeking together the best ways to provide pastoral, programmatic, and resource support for all congregations—especially the development and support our smaller congregations need—through the ministry of the episcopate and diocesan staff, both centralized and dispersed. It can be done. There are good models in other dioceses for us to learn from and adapt to this time and this place. Thus, if juncture is approved, we must engage in sustained conversation with the leadership of the new dioceses (a finance committee and diocesan council) about what the future of The Episcopal Church in our area of Michigan will look like. Neither Eastern nor Western can solve these questions alone. To be clear, this conversation must happen regardless of whether or not juncture is approved. If juncture is approved we have not only “more” but better ways of stewarding these resources. We believe these questions are best engaged together as we find a new way of being the Episcopal Church in our time and in our way.

Furthermore, the challenges ahead are not insurmountable. The increase in income (or decrease in expenses) needed to meet the model budget is only $145,685 more than the sum of our 2024 budgets, which is only a 5% change in either direction. So, while it is clear that we will have to collectively make changes to our approaches to apportionment and other revenues and/or the way we structure our diocesan ministries, those changes would not be groundshaking. Also, recent market growth would suggest that endowment income could increase somewhat under the prudent draw model. Some smaller expenses will be trimmed and saved as duplicative systems are removed. All of these puzzle pieces together can get us to where we need to be. And, once more, if juncture is approved we will have well over 18 months to figure all of this out together as the model budget will not become the proposed budget to the new diocese until the fall of 2025.

Draft Budgeted Income

While the values of endowment funds for our two dioceses are very similar, the Diocese of Eastern Michigan relies more on endowments for operating income than the Diocese of Western Michigan. By contrast, the Diocese of Western Michigan relies more on parish apportionments.

- The Transition Budget freezes 2025 apportionments at the level they are at in 2024. What that means is that when 2025 apportionments are calculated using the original formula of each diocese, if the apportionment amount in 2025 would be smaller than what was calculated in 2024, then the smaller apportionment would be used. This means no parish will see an increase in their apportionment in 2025. The numbers used in this budget are the 2024 numbers, though they may decrease slightly once parochial reports are submitted—however, the current anticipated surplus should be able to absorb that shift.
- The Model Budget was developed using a few different apportionment models:
  - Apportionment Model One used Eastern’s flat 10% along with Western’s principle of backing out the previous year’s apportionment. This resulted in a deficit of roughly $170K.
  - Apportionment Model Two was developed using a graduated apportionment model, similar to the one currently used in Western Michigan, but with larger brackets. However, backing out the prior year’s apportionment still resulted in a deficit, so in this model the previous year’s apportionment would not be backed out of the calculation.

Apportionment Model Two in Practice

The brackets in this model are: 10% of the first $100,000, 12% of the second $100,000, 14% of the third $100,000, and then 16% of any amount over $300,000. It is essential to remember that in a bracket system, all parishes are assessed 10% on their first $100,000, then those parishes with a budget above that amount are assessed only for each next bracket at that rate. So, the effective rate will be different than the bracket a parish falls in. As an example, to the right is the apportionment calculation of a larger parish in Western Michigan. As you can see, though this parish is in the 16% bracket, their effective apportionment would be 13%.

| Year   | Total Operating Revenues(per parochial report) | Prior Three-YearAverageNet OperatingIncome |
| 2020   | $ 420,258   |  |
| 2021   | $ 380,309   |  |
| 2022   | $ 429,778   | $ 410,115   |
| Use smaller of: Prior 3-year ave -OR- Prior Year Amt |  | $ 410,115   |
| 2022 apportionment paid to diocese                   |  | $ -   |
| Base Amount for apportionment                        |  | $ 410,115                                      |
| Apportionment Calculation                     |  |  |
| 10% of the first $100,000 =                         |  | $ 10,000  |
| 12% of the second $100,000 =                        |  | $ 12,000  |
| 14% of the third $100,000 =                         |  | $ 14,000  |
| 16% of any amount above $300,000 =                  |  | $ 17,618  |
|  |  | $ 53,618                                       |
| Percent of operating revenues                        |  | 13.07%   |
|  |  | Monthly$ 4,468.00                   |

Using this possible model and applying it to all our current congregations would result in the following impact:

- Of congregations currently in the Diocese of Eastern Michigan, twenty-nine congregations would have their apportionment remain within 5% of the current level, with four seeing an increase of more than 5% (the average increase in those instances would be a 24% increase). The average effective apportionment would be 11.26% and the largest effective apportionment in a parish would be 12.49%.
- In Western Michigan, five congregations would have their apportionment remain within 5% of the current level, with forty-nine seeing an increase of more than 5% (the average increase in those instances would be a 14% increase). The average effective apportionment would be 11.92% and the largest effective apportionment in a parish would be 14.73%. The draft canons would limit the highest effective apportionment to 14%, so that would be brought down a bit if those canons are approved.

Our team recognizes that this change might be a challenge for some congregations. But, once more, this model budget is simply a starting place. As noted earlier, Apportionment Model One retained the principle in Western Michigan of backing out the previous year's paid apportionment from the calculation. That model resulted in almost all congregations remaining within 5% of their current level, and several seeing a decrease in apportionment amounts. However, that apportionment model would require cutting roughly $150K in expenses or finding another way to increase income. Our team believes that would be possible with the restructuring opportunities of juncture, and given that we do not have to have that balance determined until the Fall of 2025, were juncture approved, there is time to determine what sort of structure we need to support our mission and then what sort of apportionment would be needed to support that structure.

You can go to <http://tinyurl.com/EMWM-Apportionment> to find your own parish and see how this particular model would impact your community. It is essential to remember that a final apportionment model would be developed in the summer of 2025 and that there would be a canonical limit placed on apportionment (the effective rate cannot exceed 14%). Apportionment levels would be reviewed by the new Diocesan Council in the fall of 2025, and then would require approval of the Second Convention of the diocese in the fall of 2025 before coming into effect in 2026. There may be other apportionment principles that could be included in the future—for example, limiting the annual increase to no more than 10%, so that congregations that are growing would not be hobbled by an increasing apportionment. All of these are decisions we would make together as a new diocese under new canons.

Draft Budgeted Expenses

The expenses for each diocese, when placed together, are very similar in the Transitional and the Model budget because they are both based on current staffing and systems. In the new diocese staff costs would make up the largest share of expenses (55% in the Transition and 56% in the Model), with diocesan ministries making up the next largest share (31% in the Transition and 30% in the Model) and our churchwide support making up 14% of all expenses in the Transition and 13% in the Model. The biggest difference is that while the transitional budget only includes a part-time assisting bishop, the model budget includes a full-time diocesan bishop (using median compensation standards for our region, as published by the Church Pension Group).

When we look at the portion that makes up staff costs, we can see that roughly half of all staff costs come from the bishop diocesan and the three regional canons as currently configured (46% in the Transition and a little more than 49% in the Model). About a quarter goes to administrative staff costs (26% in the Transition and 24% in the Model), with the remainder split closely between Evangelism and Networking (16% in the Transition and 15% in the Model) and Children and Youth ministries (13% in the Transition and 12% in the Model).

In the programmatic ministry costs, the percentages in this area are the same in the Transition Budget as they are in the Model Budget given we don't yet know what changes will be made. The largest portion goes to ministry formation (both for clergy and laity), at a little more than 31%. The next highest is administrative costs of running our diocesan system (26%). Then the area of Building Beloved Community (our ministries of justice work) is close to 20%. Children and youth ministry is at about 11% and congregational development work is at about 9%. Finally, 3.5% goes to our mission work in the Dominican Republic.

Conclusion

Through our work and the listening we have done throughout both dioceses, it became abundantly clear to the Stewardship of Resources Team as well as the larger Building Bridges Steering Committee that neither diocese can simply continue business as usual. Through juncture, new ways open up for us all to approach this reality with greater collective resources, skills, experience, and perspectives. Prayerful conversation is needed about how we fund our shared life as well as what sort of diocesan structure would best enable the flourishing of every congregation and, especially, the support for and development of our smaller congregations. To wit, we cannot simply combine two unsustainable diocesan budgets, neither of which accurately reflect even our current needs. But if juncture is approved, we have a clear sense of the current resources we have for ministry, along with the challenges and opportunities in front of us; both of which we believe we can engage and grow into better together than apart.

TAKING THE VOTE

The vote on juncture will be taken in a manner that ensures compliance with the diocesan canons of both Eastern and Western Michigan and with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church.

The Building Bridges Steering Committee had originally proposed that the vote for juncture be done by orders, which is a higher threshold for passage. However, Eastern Michigan's canons require that all votes unless specifically required by the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church be a vote by orders (which juncture is not), be taken by simple majority vote. Eastern Michigan does not have an allowance in their Constitution and Canons for a vote by orders to be taken on juncture. Thus the vote in Eastern Michigan will be by a simple majority.

Western Michigan's Constitution does allow for such a vote and so Western Michigan will have that option of a vote by orders should it be requested by seven voting members. That request would be submitted via a motion made on the floor of convention after the resolution on juncture is presented. If such a vote is not requested by seven voting members, the vote taken in Western Michigan will also be a simple majority vote.

RULES OF ORDER

I. SPECIAL RULES FOR THIS CONVENTION

- A. The Special Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan and the Special Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Michigan will meet jointly as one body with the exception that provision may be made for separate business meetings by each diocese.
- B. Actions taken at any joint session will be the action of each diocese individually and jointly.

II. ORGANIZATION

- A. The joint sessions and any separate sessions will be chaired according to canon.
- B. Each session of the convention shall be opened with prayer.
- C. The Secretary of the preceding convention (or, in their absence, the Secretary Pro Tempore to be elected via vote) shall send out the names of the parishes and missions in union with the convention; and the lay delegates from each shall present their certificates of election, which shall be referred to a Committee on Credentials, appointed by the Chair, consisting of one presbyter or deacon and one layperson. However, at the discretion of the Chair, certificates of election may be required to be sent in prior to the convention and be referred to the Committee on Credentials immediately preceding the opening session of the convention, thereby eliminating the reading of the names of the parishes and missions.
- D. The Secretary shall publish the names of the clergy entitled to seats in the convention and shall enter into the journal the names of those who are present.
- E. The Committee on Credentials shall report.
- F. Quorum and right to vote from time to time shall be determined on the basis of clergy who have registered or answered present and lay delegates who have theretofore been seated by the convention after the above reports.

III. GENERAL

- A. In case the Chair withdraws from the sittings of the convention, they shall appoint a Chair to preside during their absence.
- B. At any time before the final adjournment of the convention, the Chair may, and if requested by any seven (7) members shall call for the reading of the minutes of the sessions just completed; and after such reading, the minutes shall be corrected, signed by the Chair and attested by the Secretary.
- C. No motion shall be considered as before the convention until it is seconded and stated by the Chair.
- D. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless it is to lay on the table, to move the previous question, to postpone to a set time, to commit, to amend, to substitute, to postpone indefinitely, or to divide it, and motions of any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order therein named.
- E. A motion to amend by substitution shall be in order.
- F. A motion to amend, to substitute, or amend by substitution must be in written form and presented to the Chair when the motion is made.
- G. A motion to adjourn and a motion to lay on the table shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate. A motion to lay on the table shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- H. A question being decided, it shall not be reconsidered at the same convention without the consent of two-thirds of the members present nor without a motion being made by one of the majority on the prior decision.

- I. Every member present, when a motion is put, shall vote thereon unless excused by the convention.
- J. All committees shall be appointed by the Chair unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, and when they may deem it advisable, they may appoint on a committee, to report to the next convention, a person qualified to be a delegate who is not a member of the convention.
- K. When a member desires to speak, they shall approach a microphone, be recognized, and address the Chair in an audible voice if capable. Each speaker will introduce themselves and their parish and have up to 3 minutes to speak. The chair shall endeavor to alternate between speakers for and against the motion on the floor. When in joint session, the chair shall endeavor to alternate between members of the Diocese of Eastern Michigan and the Diocese of Western Michigan. When three speakers in a row have spoken on the same side of the matter up for debate, the Chair shall determine if there are members who wish to speak on the other side of the matter. If no member requests to speak, debate will end.
- L. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject without leave of the Convention, except that the person making a motion may speak twice on that motion.
- M. Debate on any principle motion and subsidiary motions addressed to it shall be limited to a total of three minutes per person, unless a majority vote of the Convention shall change the limit.
- N. No member shall withdraw from the convention without leave asked and voted.
- O. These rules of order may be suspended on a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- P. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings of the convention, except as otherwise provided hereinabove.
